

DAY DREAMS OF DEATH LED TO FRANKS' MURDER DECLARES NOTED ALIENIST CALLED BY DEFENSE

Agreement on Dawes Plan Virtually Reached

ONE TECHNICALITY ALL THAT REMAINS IN WAY OF ACCORD

Plenary Session of London Conference Called Today To Ratify Committee Reports.

GERMAN INVITATION TO BE DISPATCHED

Honors for Reaching Settlement Showered Upon French and American Delegates.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. London, August 1.—With the exception of one technical point, this afternoon reached complete agreement on how the Dawes plan should be made operative.

The one outstanding difficulty, it is said, will be cleared away and the allied plenipotentiaries have been summoned to sit in plenary session at the British foreign office on Downing street at 11:30 o'clock tomorrow morning to pass judgment upon the committee's reports, which are to be embodied in a protocol for signature by the Germans.

Tomorrow, Ramsay MacDonald, the British premier, as chairman of the inter-allied conference, will extend an invitation to the Germans to come to London as soon as possible.

Arrive Next Week. The mission from Berlin, however, is not expected to arrive before Monday and possibly Tuesday, for it is anticipated that Dr. Stresemann, the German foreign minister, will delay its departure until he has had an opportunity to talk with Charles E. Hughes, the American secretary, who is to spend Sunday in the German capital.

Although the delegates to the conference are worn out by reason of the long hours they have worked during the last few days, they do not begrudge the Germans an extra day, for high authorities here believe Mr. Hughes will give the Germans words of advice about the attitude they should take when they appear at the conference table to discuss the methods the conference has adopted for inaugurating a new reparation era.

High authorities here express the belief that the Germans will be warned to do nothing in London to obstruct the conference, adjournment of which is expected to take place at the next week-end.

Arbitration Wrought Wonders. The magic wand of arbitration, held in the hands of the French and waved over the conference table yesterday and today, has wrought wonders for inter-allied diplomacy. Differences which last week threatened to break up the parleys have disappeared, and even among the allied delegations there are expressions of surprise and wonderment that the task which for days seemed to be impossible has been accomplished.

The American delegates, official and unofficial observers, including Owen D. Young and James A. Logan, Jr., tonight expressed the opinion that the conference results are sound economically and financially and that the Dawes plan will be put to work without loss of any of its effectiveness.

From all quarters there came the

Continued on Page 5, Column 6.

AIR MAIL PILOT, HONORING FELLOW, FALLS TO DEATH

San Francisco, Calif., August 1.—William Blanchfield, United States air mail pilot, was instantly killed at Reno, Nev., late Friday when his plane crashed while he was flying over the funeral cortege of one of his former fellow fliers.

The plane, flying at an altitude of 500 feet, suddenly appeared to be out of control and fell, landing on a small house. Flames immediately enveloped the plane, but Blanchfield's body was recovered.

BIENNIAL SESSION FRIENDS SANGUINE AS DECISION NEARS

Vote Postponed Until Next Tuesday Because of Small Attendance in House Friday.

Confidence that the biennial sessions bill will pass when it is voted on next Tuesday, was expressed by supporters of the proposal after they had succeeded, Friday, in postponing final action to Tuesday by a vote of 111 to 29.

Opponents of the measure, led by Herman Miller, of Dodge county, vice chairman of the rules committee, tried to bring it to a vote Friday, but proponents of the bill successfully fought this move, on the ground there was not a large enough attendance to give the bill a fair chance for passage. Being a constitutional amendment, it is necessary, for passage, that the bill secure 133 favorable votes, which is two-thirds of the total membership of the house. Pointing to the vote on the motion to postpone until Tuesday as, in effect, a straw vote on the bill itself, its supporters declared the proportion of 111 favorable votes out of 140 voting indicated the measure's passage when there is an attendance of almost the full membership of the house Tuesday next.

New Department Voted.

Holding a brief afternoon session Friday, the house passed the bill to provide for expense of installation of the new state department of audits and its maintenance to the end of 1925. The bill provides for a total appropriation of $23,865. The final vote was 104 to 1. One member, Golden, of Harlan, voted against the bill and it was then necessary for the speaker to vote in order to secure the necessary 104 affirmative votes.

Following this, the bill to provide $250,000, in addition to the $4,250,000 already appropriated, for the common schools of the state, was brought up, but after Representative Barrett, of Stephens, had pointed out that several members had left since the preceding vote, leaving less than a quorum present, assuring the bill would fail for lack of sufficient votes, a motion to adjourn was made by Representative Culpepper and carried.

The Friday morning session was largely taken up with debate on a motion, introduced by the rules committee, calling for Saturday sessions for the remaining two Saturdays during which the 1924 session will continue. That portion of the resolution calling for a session this Saturday was defeated, 102 to 60, but the house voted favorably on the session for next Saturday, by a vote of 73 to 33.

Charge Politics in Move.

It was charged during debate on this resolution that the plan for a

Continued on Page 5, Column 4.

LOSS OF $75,000 YEARLY IS SEEN IN SALARY BILL

Substitute for Anti-Fee System Measure Proposed in Order To Protect Fulton County.

BRANAN WANTS SOLONS TO DECIDE SALARIES

Sees Danger in Giving This Power to County Board—Meeting Is Called for Monday.

Fulton county will lose from $60,000 to $75,000 a year to which she is justly entitled, unless changes are made in the bill designed to place officials on a salary basis, the subcommittee of the county executive committee was told by Chairman Charles L. Branan at a special session at the state capital Friday afternoon. The measure, which applies only to Fulton county, has passed the house and will be considered next by a senate committee.

The committee adopted resolutions calling upon the county representatives and the senator from this district to hold up final action until a public hearing can be held either August 4 or 5 to enable correction to be made.

Would Lose Big Sum. Present wording of the bill will divert into the state treasury each year, Mr. Branan said, $60,000 to $75,000 fees for collection of state and special taxes which should remain in the county treasury where officials are placed on a salary basis. Unless corrected this year the present wording must remain effective for four years, Mr. Branan stated, which would cost the county at least $250,000.

The commissions, the committee was told, legally can be held in the county treasury, if the bill is corrected, as well as all fees that at present

Continued on Page 8, Column 2.

Delay Probable In Ponce de Leon Paving Project

City and Power Company Officials Conflict Over Right of Way.

Delay in repaving of Ponce de Leon avenue, slated to begin this year under plans announced recently by Councilman John A. White, appeared probable Friday when Councilman White admitted breakdown of arrangements to repave under the "baby bond" plan and obtained indorsement of the council street committee to resolutions asking the county to repave the street and calling upon the Georgia Railway & Power Co. to repave between its tracks.

Resolutions adopted by the committee call for work to be done from Piedmont avenue to the Southern railway bridge between October, 1924, and February, 1925.

Ownership Conflict.

Conflicting opinions of city and power company officials, however, indicated a possibility that a contest in the courts over ownership of the street car right of way might have to be waged before any work can begin.

Power company officials recalled that the land on which the Ponce de Leon tracks are laid was purchased outright by an old horse-car company before Ponce de Leon was made a street and that the power company acquired those rights years ago.

City Attorney James L. Mayson told the street committee that the title to the land had passed into the city's ownership when the city was permitted to use it for street purposes.

Will Notify Company.

The White resolutions are to be submitted to general council Monday, and, if approved by council, the city attorney will notify the power company that the paving will be done.

Last year the company offered to dred to the city its claims to the land if the street were repaved without assessment against the company, but no money for the paving was available.

The property owners along the street have failed to muster a majority of the front footage to agree to finance the paving under the baby bond plan, Councilman White said.

Hunt for Women In Thaxton Death Mystery Continues

Police Are Determined To Question Them Before Accepting Jury's Verdict of Suicide.

THREATS OF SUICIDE RELATED AT INQUEST

Father Denies Son Had Cost Him Large Sum of Money or Had Ever Caused Him Trouble.

Until the women mentioned by witnesses testifying at the coroner's inquest into the death of LeGray Thaxton, 22-year-old filling station proprietor, have been located and questioned, detectives working under the direction of Captain A. J. Holcombe will not abandon their investigation, nor accept as final the verdict of suicide returned by the coroner's jury late Friday afternoon.

Two of these women—one reported to be married—came to the filling station Thursday afternoon with a male companion. About 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon the man and one of the women left in a borrowed automobile, the other woman remaining at the filling station with Thaxton.

However, about 6 o'clock that afternoon, this woman left the station in a light touring car, if she ever returned to Thaxton's place of business, officers have not learned of it.

Thaxton's Body Found. Thaxton's body was found in the room of the filling station he operates at Houston and Jackson streets about 10:30 o'clock Thursday night. He had been shot through the brain by a bullet from the pistol found close by his feet, it was established.

This pistol was the property of the victim, officers say.

Captain Grover C. Fain, in charge of the evening watch, and Lieutenant T. D. Shaw, of the morning detail, with Detectives John C. and I. Hiram Davis, who rushed to the filling station and assumed charge of the investigation, immediately abandoned the theory of robbery as the motive for murder when it was found that approximately $100 in cash in the of

Continued on Page 4, Column 3.

POLICE MOBILIZED AGAINST KLAN MOB

Rubber Hose, Small Clubs, Lead Pipe and Loaded Revolvers Found in Automobiles.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Worcester, Mass., August 1.—Two men were under arrest in consequence of a Ku Klux Klan gathering tonight in Shrewsbury, near here, and a large detachment of the state police patrol was mobilized at the Holden headquarters barracks under command of Capt. George A. Parker. Three other arrests were made during the day as a result of the investigation into the disorders between klansmen and anti-klan sympathizers at Ballard Hill.

Continued on Page 8, Column 2.

"Famous for Its Beautiful Women"

That's what people the country over say about Atlanta, and those who have trod the pave of Peachtree street know that the women of Atlanta deserve their reputation for charm and beauty.

Truth of this fact is attested by the grave section of Sunday's Constitution, which features a big double-page "spread" of beautiful girls, attired in fetching bathing costume and all candidates for the title of "Miss Atlanta" in the Constitution's 1924 tournament to select a representative of this city for the Atlantic City national beauty tournament in September.

Don't fail to look for this interesting feature in

The Graveure Section
Of Sunday's Constitution

LABOR TO INDORSE LA FOLLETTE RACE FOR PRESIDENCY

Gompers Declares He Will Not Lead Any Fight To Oppose Independent Ticket.

FEDERATION CHIEF RAPS COMMUNISTS

Veteran Union Leader Replies to Attack of Manly by Striking at St. Paul Meet.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Atlantic City, N. J., August 1.—Indorsement of the La Follette-Wheeler candidates by the American Federation of Labor appeared certain tonight at the close of the first day of the annual session of the federation's executive council.

These were the developments: Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and chairman of the council, authorized an aide to state that he, Mr. Gompers, would not lead any opposition to La Follette and Wheeler that might develop at these sessions.

Members of the council, while they stood behind Mr. Gompers' declaration of yesterday that the federation would maintain its traditional non-partisanship in the 1924 campaign, declared they could properly indorse La Follette and Wheeler as long as the indorsement was confined to candidates and refrained from pleading, fealty to any national political party.

Report to Be Unanimous. It was disclosed that the report of the national political campaign committee of the A. F. of L. on major party platforms and presidential and vice presidential candidates would be unanimous and would be the only report submitted to the council.

Another development was a statement by Mr. Gompers commenting on a telegram reported in news dispatches to have been sent the labor leader from Chicago today by Joseph Manly, campaign manager for the workers' party, whose presidential nominee is William Z. Foster.

The dispatches said the telegram attacked Mr. Gompers as the "arch betrayer of the working classes." In his statement Mr. Gompers said in part:

Gompers Raps Communists. "Foster and Ruthenberg (the workers' party presidential and vice presidential nominees) tried to indorse Senator La Follette in their St. Paul convention, but the senator, I recalled them by denouncing the whole communist outfit.

"Thus chastened, Foster and Ruthenberg, in control of the machinery set up in the St. Paul convention, betrayed the men and women we've tried with honest purposes to convince, set up dummy candidates who were almost immediately discarded without ceremony and then proceeded to attack Senator La Follette.

"Without expressing any further opinion, I am sure the senator will be pleased to know that international revolutionary communism opposes him. For my part, I should consider it extremely unfortunate for any political leader, or for any bona fide trade union leader or official to have the friendship of those whose first object is the destruction of all our democratic institutions and finally of the republic itself."

TRAGEDIES FOLLOW AVIATORS' DESIRE FOR "SHOWING OFF"

Paris, August 1.—A desire to be a "daredevil" in the eyes of adoring crowds has led to several deaths from airplane crashes this week.

The latest was Friday when Lieutenant Pinsol crashed while flying over his home near La Trinite. The plane fell through a crowded cafe and several customers were killed.

Pinsol was on an unauthorized flight and was going through many dangerous air maneuvers so his mother could watch him in action.

Wednesday, Sergeants Rapin and Nicely were flying over a crowd near Bourg-la-Reine. In the crowd were Sergeant Rapin's parents. The plane crashed. Nicely and two women were killed and Sergeant Rapin as his mother fatally wounded. The two sergeants were on an unauthorized flight and also were "showing off" before home folks.

FOUR ARE KILLED WHEN AUTOMOBILE JUMPS OVER BANK

Wellsboro, Pa., August 1.—Four persons were killed and one seriously injured today when a motor car driven by O. D. Patterson, of Mansfield, Pa., plunged over a bank on the highway between Phillips Station and Knoxville. Those killed were Patterson and his daughter and a Mrs. Husted and her daughter, Bessie. Mrs. Patterson was badly hurt.

CAMPAIGN CHIEFS TO CENTER DRIVE ON FIRESIDE VOTE

Leaders of Both Major Parties Direct Special Appeal to Non-Voting Stay-at-Homes.

BY THOMAS L. STOKES.

Washington, D. C., August 1.—Campaign managers of the two political parties, and of the independent movement, are scratching their heads this year to devise means of leading to the polls in November the so-called stay-at-home vote, realizing that it may have a strong bearing on the final result.

This is the reason: Fifty per cent of the people in the country who are qualified to vote are not voting. It has been learned from comparing census figures with ballot totals. This stay-at-home vote, if it went to the polls, could elect any candidate it centered upon.

Radio to Stir Interest.

Of course, campaign managers do not expect to raise all of this vote, or even a majority of it. But every vote from the ranks of those who have not been voting is a gain, and because of the peculiar situation this year, into which all kinds of doubt has been thrown by the addition of another political movement, strong efforts are being made to wake these non-voters up to their responsibility.

Campaigns of education are being employed. The republicans started one type some months ago, through clubs in colleges of the country. The radio, it is believed, will stir some of this vote to the polls this year, carrying the speeches of the candidates to thousands who otherwise would not be reached or attracted.

Effect of Large Vote.

The figures in the 1920 election give some idea of the situation. There were 52,418,895 qualified men and women voters. Of this number 26,713,892 voted, while 25,705,003 stayed away from the polls. This means that

Continued on Page 5, Column 7.

Confederate Vet Conquers Time And Wins Bride

Aged Civil War Hero, 84, Launches Loveboat With Woman, 35.

BY JOHN H. HEWLETT.

J. R. Padgett, battle-scarred Confederate veteran, resting at the end of 84 tremendous years, has launched an old-fashioned galleon on the stormy sea of modern matrimony. Friday afternoon he married Miss Vallie Wells, 35, in the home of Mrs. Speedy, on Spring street, in Gainesville. His best man was 85 and blind.

The ceremony, which was attended by a few close friends, was performed by W. B. Sloan, judge of the city court.

The best man, also a Confederate veteran, stood in the living room of the home and listened to the words of the judge which united his friend to a woman forty-nine years his junior and "wondered how he did it." He remembered, it is declared, how "Battling John" climbed over the Yankee battlelines and helped take the front along the Potomac; he had seen him live on parched corn for an unbelievable period; he had seen him conquer the hardships of a civil war and wear a smile, but he was astounded when he won a comely mountain beauty at the advanced age of 84.

Mr. Padgett, however, takes his victory as a matter of course. He does not regard the "adventure" as miraculous. He is matter-of-fact and said "I had it coming all along, although I waited a long time to realize it." Mrs. Padgett will do light-house keeping, while her husband braves for the dash to the hundred-year mark. "My tenacity has won me a bride," the happy groom asserts, "it will also carry me beyond the century mark."

PHANTOM PEOPLES DOMINATED LIVES OF BOY'S SLAYERS

Mental Expert Traces Trail of Responsibility Direct to Lack of Parental Discipline.

JUDGE CAVERLY ADMITS TESTIMONY

Little Lies of Childhood Told by "Dickie" Loeb Cited by Dr. White as Beginning of Crime.

BABIES ARE BARRED FROM MURDER TRIAL

Chicago, August 1.—Babies are barred from the trial of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, so the baby daughter of E. S. Crouch, of New Orleans, had to content herself yesterday with sleeping the time away in her father's arms in a witness room while the mother and her mother sat in the courtroom and heard the lawyers argue. Reporters found Ethel Mae napping, and when she waked she became the pet of the batteries of reporters, photographers and artists covering the trial. Mr. Crouch is connected with a New Orleans firm of investment bankers and with his family is enjoying a northern vacation.

BY H. H. ROBERTSON.

Chicago, August 1.—Dark castles of dreams, haunted by a sinister and compelling phantom of death and built from a tissue of overwrought imagination by Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, led to the murder of 14-year-old Robert Franks.

This was the first evidence introduced by the defense to save Loeb and Leopold from the gallows on the ground of moral irresponsibility. It came from Dr. William White, one of America's leading alienists, who was one of the battalion of specialists on mental diseases which examined the two young murderers in advance of their trial.

The visions that resulted in one of the nation's most atrocious crimes were more than mere air castles of childhood, the physician declared. They persisted throughout the years and constantly assumed a more menacing character.

Shadows Still Exist.

The phantoms still exist. Loeb and Leopold, who killed the son of a friend and neighbor and tried to extort money from the father as ransom, live in an unreal world, a world of shadows, populated with phantoms materialized by a combination of precocity and over-development, and translated through the media of these two youths into a series of abnormalities, misdeeds and crimes, White said.

Dr. White commenced his testimony under State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe had waged a valiant fight for two days to prevent the introduction of testimony on mental or physical conditions, because, he argued, the

Continued on Page 5, Column 1.

The Weather CLOUDY.

Washington.—Forecast: Georgia: Partly cloudy Saturday and Sunday; probably scattered thunderstorms in south portion.

Local Weather Report.

Highest temperature ..... 78
Lowest temperature ..... 68
Mean temperature ..... 73
Normal temperature ..... 78
Rainfall in past 24 hours, ins. . . 86
Excess since last month, ins. . . 26
Deficiency since Jan. 1, ins. . . 210

7 a. m. Noon 7 p. m.

Dry temperature ..... 74 74 74

Wet bulb ..... 69 71 72

Relative humidity 79 80 83

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS AND STATE OR TERRITORY	Temperature	Rain
ATLANTA, Ga.	78	.35
Birmingham, Ala.	74	.06
Boston, Mass.	68	.00
Buffalo, N. Y.	62	.00
Charlotte, N. C.	74	.54
Chicago, Ill.	69	.00
Denver, Colo.	82	.00
Des Moines, Ia.	70	.00
Galveston, Tex.	84	.00
Hatteras, N. C.	78	.00
Hayes, Va.	62	.00
Jacksonville, Fla.	84	.00
Kansas City, Mo.	80	.00
Memphis, Tenn.	80	.00
Miami, Fla.	84	.00
Mobile, Ala.	84	.00
Montgomery, Ala.	74	.00
New Orleans, La.	82	.00
New York, N. Y.	72	.00
North Platte, Neb.	84	.00
Oklahoma, Okla.	82	.00
Phoenix, Ariz.	108	.00
Pittsburgh, Pa.	68	.00
Raleigh, N. C.	84	.00
San Francisco, Calif.	62	.00
St. Louis, Mo.	80	.00
Salt Lake City, Utah	92	.00
Savannah, Ga.	82	.00
Tampa, Fla.	86	.00
Tulsa, Okla.	88	.00
Wichita, Kan.	82	.00
Washington, D. C.	74	.00

C. F. von HERMANN,
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

When Fur Began to Fly In Atlanta Politics

Only about 3,000 people lived here in 1850 when Atlanta saw its first political campaign.

The "Moral Party" supported Jonathan Norcross, while the candidate of the "Rowdy Party" was L. C. Simpson. In the heat and excitement of the contest, Norcross' supporters were treated to apples and candies; Simpson's headquarters were said to have served up whisky and other ancient brews.

The "Moral Party" carried the day.

Since then this city's interest in politics has grown with the increase of population. Candidates, voters and disinterested onlookers find no more dependable medium for political news than the columns of The Atlanta Constitution, which—fifteen years before any other Atlanta newspaper was even in existence—began publishing for Southern readers reliable news of world statesmanship.

OVER 2,000,000 AMERICANS EVERY DAY SHOP WHERE THE BEST COSTS LESS-THE A&P STORES

We Have Been Selling High Quality Merchandise for Sixty-Five Years. Merchandising to Us Has Become an Art. No Effort is Spared to Give Our Customers the HIGHEST QUALITY OBTAINABLE at the LOWEST PRICES POSSIBLE for a SIMILAR QUALITY.

Extra Large, Firm Heads  Iceberg Lettuce  Each  17½c	Lemons  Big, Smooth, Juicy Fellows  Doz.  14c	Peaches  Well Colored Fancy Georgia Elbertas  Do not Confuse With Other Fruit on Market Offered at a Lower Price 4 Qt. BASKET  19c	10 Lbs.  Large No. 1 Va.  COBBLER  Potatoes  23c
---	--	--	--

Considerable Precaution Should Be Taken in Buying

FLOUR

There is Flour and "Flour."
We Sell Only Such Quality As We Can Consistently Recommend

PILLSBURY'S Everybody Knows This Superior Quality Hard Wheat Flour  A&amp;P Brand A Soft Wheat Flour Which Has Won the Admiration of Thousands of Atlanta's Most Discriminating Housewives  12 lb. Bag 60c   24 lb. Bag $1.15 Pl. or S. R.	IONA A Good Quality Soft Winter Wheat at a Very Low Price. A Better Quality Than Many Flours Selling for More Money.  12 lb. Bag 47c   24 lb. Bag 89c Pl. or S. R.
--	---

BUTTER Our Genuine Elgin Creamery Has Been Reduced. You Can Now Buy the Best for Less.  REX PURE HOG	LARD IN BULK lb. . . . 16c 4 lb. Pail 70c   8 lb. Pail $1.35	Per Pound 47c ¼ lb. Stick 13c   1 lb. in Carton 50c
---	--	---

Asparagus Mission Brand 3 Tall Cans 50c	FRUIT JAM Sultana Brand 15½ oz. Jar 25c Variety of Flavors	SALMON A&P Alaskan Chinook No. 1 Can 42c
--	--	---

Encore Brand Spaghetti Prepared with Cheese and Tomato Sauce Large Can 10c
---

TEA Orange Pekoe, India-Ceylon or Mixed 2-oz. Pkg. 10c ¼-lb. Pkg. 20c ½-lb. Pkg. 39c	RICE Fancy Head Honduras Cooks Dry—Stands Up 16-oz. Package 10c	Bakers' Premium COCONUT 4-oz. Pkg. 13c	FREE With Every Bottle of Gulden's Mustard Salad Dressing Purchased at Low Price of 16c We Will Give Away FREE The Second Bottle
--	---	--	--

"Just Around the Corner
From Everybody"

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC CO.

The Original
Red Front
Stores

There's a ROGERS Store near you

ROGERS

Where Satisfaction is a Certainty

Big Values for Saturday Shoppers

NEW YORK STATE

Boston Head Lettuce 8c

Tender Home-Grown BUTTERBEANS, qt. 5c

California Fancy Red Ball LEMONS, Doz. 15c

Large, Smooth Va. Cobblers, 10 Lbs. 23c

California Red Ball Oranges, doz. 35c

8-Pound Bucket SNOWDRIFT, $1.41

American Sweet Pickles, 32-Oz. Jar 33c

No. 2½ Can— Sliced Pineapple, 33c

Rogers' Mayonnaise

Fresh Daily in All Rogers' Stores

With a sale of 15c ½ pint for . . . . . 25c ½ pint for . . . . .
We will sell you any 5c package of Block's crackers for . . . . . 2c A pint can of MAZOLA Cooking Oil for . . . . . 11c

ONE-POUND CAN CRISCO A VEGETABLE SHORTENING
Buy One 27c Sell you Another for . . . . . 16c for . . . . . Limit, 2 Cans to a Customer

FINE CALIFORNIA

Evaporated Peaches

Sell You One 19c A Second Pound for . . . . . 4c
Pound for . . . . . Limit, 2 Pounds to a Customer

SPECIAL SALE OF

Electric Light Bulbs

25-Watt, frosted all over, especially suited for wall fixtures, or where a bright, yet soft light, is wanted. Grouped in a chandelier they give a beautiful effect. Single bulb. . . . . 37c

A PACKAGE OF FIVE—$1.79

40-Watt, clear, single bulb, 23c; five . . . . . $1.09
60-Watt, clear, single bulb, 29c; five . . . . . $1.39
100-Watt, bowl enamel (half frosted) single bulb, 51c; five . . . . . $2.19

A FINE, COOLING, REFRESHING DRINK

RIDGWAY'S TEAS

Orange Label ¼ lb., 26c; ½ lb., 49c Orange Pekoe ¼ lb., 30c; ½ lb., 58c
A Number of Other Blends and Sizes

America Dry Ginger Ale

Nothing Superior to This Fine, Dry Ginger Ale Bottle, 19c
½ Doz. Bottles . . . . . $1.05 1 Doz. Bottles . . . . . $2.05

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale

One of the Most Popular Ginger Ales on the Market Bottle, 17c
½ Doz. Bottles, 99c; Doz. Bottles, $1.95

The "Murray-Hale" Peach

The time is growing short. Today will probably be the last day you can get these delicious Georgia Peaches. Place your order early at 26 West Alabama Street—next door to Rich's new store.

There's a ROGERS Store near you

ROGERS

Where Satisfaction is a Certainty

Petersburg, Va., August 1.—Frank Merhout, who pleaded guilty to robbing the express car of the Norfolk & Western railway "Cannon Ball" on the night of December 6 last of $37,000, was sentenced today to five years in the state penitentiary. Merhout turned state's evidence against two of his comrades and admitted that he actually committed the robbery after it had been planned by the others. Frank J. Reynolds, one of those implicated by Merhout and who was found guilty and sentenced to six years' imprisonment, was denied a new trial today by Judge Peterson. Argument on a motion for a new trial for W. G. Longmire, also implicated by Merhout, was being heard today by Judge Peterson in Prince George county circuit court.

Baby Is Rescued
Near Bluff Edge
On Chattahoochee

Unaware of her peril, two-year-old Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Miles, who live on the Brandon Mills road, was rescued as she toddled near the edge of a stony bluff approximately 300 feet above the waters of the Chattahoochee river, Friday morning.

She was found by County Policeman Claude Webb, who, with other members of the Fulton county constabulary and neighbors, had joined in a search for the missing infant, who had stolen away into the woods while her mother was at work in the back of the house. Mrs. Miles thought the baby was with her little brother.

Officer Webb, who left the searching party to go alone along the bluff of the river, discovered the tiny bit of humanity on the brink of the high bluff. Afraid to call to her for fear she might fall, the officer crept along the edge of the bluff until he could reach the baby girl. As he folded his arms gently about her, she commenced fretting for her mother and complaining of the bumps on her face and hands and legs, caused from insect bites.

SEES DEADLY CONFLICT OF EAST AGAINST WEST

Williamstown, Mass., August 1.—Unless some way is found to a peaceful adjustment of relations between the Occident and the Orient, the world will be plunged into a deadly racial conflict, said Sir Valentine Chirol today in the first lecture of this year's institute of politics at Williams college.

Sir Valentine for many years was director of the foreign department of The London Times and a member of the royal commission on the Indian public services. His lecture was the first of a series on eastern and near eastern questions.

The re-awakening of the Orient, he said, was "a direct challenge to western supremacy, intellectual and spiritual as well as economic. It assumes a different shape in different countries, but there is one feature common to all. They belong to many different religious and social problems, but they are all united in a common resentment of the white man's assumption of superiority."

Speaking specifically of Turkey he said: "Hostility to all foreigners has never been so deliberately and insolently displayed as it is today."

Negro Youth Hanged.

Lake Charles, La., August 1.—Alto Hamilton, negro youth, was hanged here this afternoon for the murder of Darville Borel, white farmer, near Lake Charles last September. The trap was sprung at 2:17 o'clock. The negro went to his death calmly and without a quiver of the hand.

MAISON MAYOR FAVORS
$30,000 FOR EXHIBIT

That widespread interest has been aroused in favor of the bill to appropriate $30,000 for Georgia's exhibit in the southern exposition, to be held next January in New York, is shown by the number of messages received daily by members of the legislature from their constituents, according to a statement made Friday by B. S. Parker, executive secretary of the state exposition committee.

The following telegram was received Friday by Representative J. W. Culpepper, chairman of the house appropriations committee, from Mayor Luther Williams, of Macon:

"I sincerely hope the bill to appropriate funds for Georgia's exhibit at the southern exposition to be held in New York in January will have your enthusiastic support."

"If Georgia fails to take part in that undertaking, and particularly should she happen to be the only state not participating, incalculable harm will be done her prestige."

Buy it from
Stewart D. Jones
for best values!

17 EAST MITCHELL ST.
1-pound "Dixie Delicious" Cake free each hour from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Special Demonstration

12-oz. Can Sun Maid Raisins... 10c

6 lbs. No. 1 Irish Cobblers... 14c

Rosedale Sliced Dried Beef... 10c

3-lb. Wilbur's Baking Chocolate... 10c

Lemons, dozen... 15c

Tall Can Carnation Pet or Dairyman's League Milk... 10c

Baby Is Rescued
Near Bluff Edge
On Chattahoochee

Unaware of her peril, two-year-old Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Miles, who live on the Brandon Mills road, was rescued as she toddled near the edge of a stony bluff approximately 300 feet above the waters of the Chattahoochee river, Friday morning.

She was found by County Policeman Claude Webb, who, with other members of the Fulton county constabulary and neighbors, had joined in a search for the missing infant, who had stolen away into the woods while her mother was at work in the back of the house. Mrs. Miles thought the baby was with her little brother.

Officer Webb, who left the searching party to go alone along the bluff of the river, discovered the tiny bit of humanity on the brink of the high bluff. Afraid to call to her for fear she might fall, the officer crept along the edge of the bluff until he could reach the baby girl. As he folded his arms gently about her, she commenced fretting for her mother and complaining of the bumps on her face and hands and legs, caused from insect bites.

SEES DEADLY CONFLICT OF EAST AGAINST WEST

Williamstown, Mass., August 1.—Unless some way is found to a peaceful adjustment of relations between the Occident and the Orient, the world will be plunged into a deadly racial conflict, said Sir Valentine Chirol today in the first lecture of this year's institute of politics at Williams college.

Sir Valentine for many years was director of the foreign department of The London Times and a member of the royal commission on the Indian public services. His lecture was the first of a series on eastern and near eastern questions.

The re-awakening of the Orient, he said, was "a direct challenge to western supremacy, intellectual and spiritual as well as economic. It assumes a different shape in different countries, but there is one feature common to all. They belong to many different religious and social problems, but they are all united in a common resentment of the white man's assumption of superiority."

Speaking specifically of Turkey he said: "Hostility to all foreigners has never been so deliberately and insolently displayed as it is today."

Negro Youth Hanged.

Lake Charles, La., August 1.—Alto Hamilton, negro youth, was hanged here this afternoon for the murder of Darville Borel, white farmer, near Lake Charles last September. The trap was sprung at 2:17 o'clock. The negro went to his death calmly and without a quiver of the hand.

MAISON MAYOR FAVORS
$30,000 FOR EXHIBIT

That widespread interest has been aroused in favor of the bill to appropriate $30,000 for Georgia's exhibit in the southern exposition, to be held next January in New York, is shown by the number of messages received daily by members of the legislature from their constituents, according to a statement made Friday by B. S. Parker, executive secretary of the state exposition committee.

The following telegram was received Friday by Representative J. W. Culpepper, chairman of the house appropriations committee, from Mayor Luther Williams, of Macon:

"I sincerely hope the bill to appropriate funds for Georgia's exhibit at the southern exposition to be held in New York in January will have your enthusiastic support."

"If Georgia fails to take part in that undertaking, and particularly should she happen to be the only state not participating, incalculable harm will be done her prestige."

Buy it from
Stewart D. Jones
for best values!

17 EAST MITCHELL ST.
1-pound "Dixie Delicious" Cake free each hour from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Special Demonstration

12-oz. Can Sun Maid Raisins... 10c

6 lbs. No. 1 Irish Cobblers... 14c

Rosedale Sliced Dried Beef... 10c

3-lb. Wilbur's Baking Chocolate... 10c

OLD WOMEN'S HOME EXERCISES DELAYED

Owing to unavoidable circumstances, according to those in charge of arrangements, the program for breaking of ground for the Old Women's Home, in West End, which was scheduled for 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, has been postponed until Sunday afternoon, August 10.

Elaborate ceremonies, including addresses by a number of prominent Atlanta citizens, had been arranged to mark the beginning of actual work. Unforeseen circumstances, however, which arose the latter part of the week has necessitated the postponement.

The complete program and the new hour for the ceremonies will be announced early next week.

John G. Cato
8 S. Forsyth St.

Still Selling
Good Things to Eat

Friers, 30c

Beef Roast, 10c

Come To See Me!

TAYLOR'S Drug Store

480 Ponce de Leon Ave.
Opposite Ford Plant

SPECIAL For Sunday

Ice Cream... 49c Qt.

Frozen Fruit
Punch... 29c Qt.

No Deliveries at These Prices

National MARKET

35 E. ALABAMA

Pure Hog Lard... 15 1/2c

Lighthouse Cleanser, 5 Cans... 24c

Argo Gloss Starch, 6 for... 23c

Tall Milk, can... 9 1/2c

No. 2 Sugar Corn, can... 9 1/2c

Tenderloin Steak... 23 1/2c

Leg of Lamb... 19 1/2c

Lamb Chops... 25c

Lamb Shoulders... 15c

Lamb Stew... 5c

Good Steak, lb... 12 1/2c

Veal Chops, lb... 10c

Beef Roast, lb... 10c

Brisket Roast... 7 1/2c

Stew Meat... 5c

Henard's Relish

For the kiddies between-meal bite. HENARD'S RELISH on a slice of bread.

Your grocer has it or he can get it.

HENARD MAYONNAISE CO.
Atlanta

WE SELL

Morning Joy
PURE COFFEE

Absolutely Fresh,
Pure and Delicious.

PIGGY WIGGLY

Sugar Domino Cane 10 75c
In Cotton Bags lbs.

Bananas Large, Ripe Yellow Fruit 2 Doz. 15c

LEMONS FANCY CALIFORNIA Large Size, Doz. 19c

Potatoes Virginia Cobblers Large Size lbs. 23c

TEA Tetley's Orange 1/4 lb. 23c
Pekoe for Iced Tea 1/2 lb. 44c

YAMS NEW GEORGIA lb. 10c

LARD Kingan's No. 5 Pail 76c
Indiana Brand No. 10 Pail $1.49
Pure Hog Lard

MILK Sunset Gold Tall Can 9 1/2c
Quality Guarant'd, Small " 5c

Pineapple Fancy No. 2 can 28c
Hawaiian Sliced No. 2 1/2 " 33c

Scott Tissue 2 Rolls 29c

Corn Flakes Kellogg's or Post Toasties Package 8c

BACON Sliced With Rind Off lb. 28c

Welch's Grape Pints 34c
Juice, Quarts 64c

Salmon Alaska Pink Tall Can 15c

Octagon SOAP AND SOAP POWDER Small Size, 10 for 43c

Flour NANCY HALL 12-lb. Sack 59c
PLAIN 24-lb. Sack $1.09
A Real Value

Butter SUNSET GOLD 45c
Finest Quality, lb.

Snow Drift 1-lb. Can 23c
2-lb. Can 45c

McINTYRE BROS.

Opp. Ansley Hotel 85 NORTH FORSYTH STREET

TODAY ONLY

Buy Where You Know the Quality Is Good
Fine, Fresh, Fat, Fancy Home-Dressed

FRIERS . . . 35c

We have fancy fat small Broilers, Hens, Calf Livers, Sweet Breads, etc.

Home of Fine Western Beef
Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

We Recommend

Mazola Oil

For Salads

of All Kinds

We Sell
Roller Champion
The flour the best cooks use!

STRIP BACON . . . . . 20c

Sliced Ham, lb. . . . . 25c

Kingan Sliced Bacon, lb. . . . . 25c

Veal Steaks, lb. . . . . 15c

Pork Chops, lb. . . . . 20c

Lamb Shoulders, 12 1/2c

Fresh Eggs, dozen . . . . . 30c

Pure Rex Lard, No. 10 Pail . . . $1.25

Picnic Hams, lb. . . . . 15c

Regular Hams, lb. . . . . 20c

Beef Pot Roast, lb. . . . . 8c

Veal Roast, lb. . . . . 10c

Pork Sausage, lb. . . . . 15c

LAMB LEGS, Pound . . . . . 18c

BROAD STREET MARKET

78 South Broad Street

FRIERS Nice, fat home-dressed Lb. 34 1/2c

HENS Young, fat home-dressed Lb. 26 1/2c

FRESH PURE HOG LARD, LB. . . . 14 1/2c

CASH GROCERY CO.

511 PEACHTREE ST.

UNCLE SAM BREAD

The Quality Loaf

Both Fresh

Schlesinger's GOLDENROD POUND CAKE

Every Day

SCHLESINGER-MEYER BAKING CO., Atlanta

for Sunday
Dessert

Each special flavor is a fresh surprise.

JESSUP & ANTRIM BRICK ICE CREAM

If you haven't tried a brick yet, order one from your neighborhood drug store for Sunday.

This Week's Special

English Walnut Salad

SPECIALS

Sliced HAM AND BACON Lb. 20c

Pork Chops, lb. . . . . 20c

Veal Chops, lb. . . . . 15c

Veal Cutlets, lb. . . . . 25c

Veal Roast, lb. . . . . 10c

Fresh Eggs, doz. . . . . 30c

Beef Pot Roast, lb. . . . . 8c

Spareribs, lb. . . . . 10c

Pork Sausage, lb. . . . . 15c

Salt Meat, lb. . . . . 12 1/2c

Pure Lard, lb. . . . . 15c

We Sell the Best for Less

PUBLIC MARKET

114 WHITEHALL ST.

LAMB--LAMB--LAMB

LAMB STEW HINDQUARTERS . . . . . 5c
FOREQUARTERS . . . . . 17c
SHOULDERS . . . . . 11c

STEAK ROUND, LOIN, PORTERHOUSE, 12 1/2c

BEEF STEW . . . . . 4c
ROAST . . . . . 8c
RUMP ROAST . . . . . 12 1/2c

Veal Chops, lb., 9c Veal Steak, lb., 15c
Veal Stew, lb., 4c

BUEHLER BROS.

17 W. Alabama St. Across From Rich's 35 N. Pryor

PAVING PROJECTS GIVEN APPROVAL

Ten new paving projects, to cost in all more than $60,000, were approved by the street committee of city council Friday afternoon as part of the road-building street improvement program now in progress in Atlanta. All ten are in residence sections and are to be financed on the by-bond plan.

New projects are:
Violet street, Jefferson to Haygood, to be paved with concrete, by MacDougald Construction company.
McGruder, Randolph to Sampson, concrete, by Brittain.

Forrest avenue, Randolph to Fortuna, concrete, by Brittain.
Todd road, Virginia to Highland View, concrete, by MacDougald.
Chestnut, Bankhead to Jefferson, concrete, by Jamison and Hollowell.

McLynn, Highland to Lanier, asphalt, by MacDougald.
Humphries, Whitehall to Glenn, will be composition, by MacDougald.
Warren, Trotto to Georgia railroad, concrete, by Pittman.
Trotto, Howard to Warren, concrete, by Pittman.
Clifton, West Boulevard drive to Hardee, asphalt, by MacDougald.

COOLIDGE TO STUDY SUGAR REPORT

Continued from First Page.

will call in experts from some of the other departments for advice.

As yet, the president has not begun a review of the facts presented in the two reports, it was said, and there was no indication at the white house Friday as to what constitutes the differences between the two documents. It is understood the majority report is that of Vice Chairman Culbertson and Commissioners Lewis and Costigan, while Chairman Martin and Commissioner Burgess signed the other.

No Change Contemplated.
It was denied at the white house Friday that President Coolidge is contemplating any changes in the personnel of the commission, or that any resignations are expected as result of the differences. Vice Chairman Culbertson is not under consideration for ambassador to Mexico, as has been rumored, it was said, nor for any other position.

President Coolidge has never conferred with William V. Hodges, new treasurer of the republican national committee, who has been mentioned in published reports as seeking to influence a delay in the sugar report. It was stated at the white house, neither has the president had any "particular conversation" with Senator Smoot, of Utah, chairman of the senate finance committee, regarding sugar tariff schedules, it was said also.

August Clearance OF WHITES

White Reingcloth or Kid

Our entire stock of White Slippers in Kid and Reingcloth. Beautiful straps and cut-outs in newest styles. Priced for quick clearance at—

$1.95

AND

$2.95

Values to $7.00

Star
SHOE STORES
95 Whitehall St.

HOOD Brick
ARE GOOD Brick

Pimples On Face Neck And Arms
Cuticura Healed

"I was troubled with eczema which broke out in large, red pimples on my face, neck and arms. The breaking out on my face scaled over, and the skin on my hands would break open and bleed. My face itched and burned and I lost a lot of sleep. I tried all kinds of remedies but never found relief until I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using four cakes of Cuticura Soap and four boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Zeller Thompson, Rt. 1, Princeton, S. C.

Clear the pores of impurities by daily use of Cuticura Soap and occasional touches of Cuticura Ointment as needed to soothe and heal. Samples Free by Mail. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 10, Malden, Mass. Sold everywhere. Keep the Ointment in the Jar. Try our new Shaving Stick.

Race of Langley Is Only Feature Of Kentucky Poll

Louisville, Ky., August 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The candidacy of John W. Langley for re-nomination on the republican ticket as representative for the tenth congressional district, probably is the outstanding feature of the primary election to be held throughout Kentucky tomorrow. Two senatorial candidates, one republican and one democrat, and candidates for congress for the eleventh congressional district are to be selected.

There are no generally accepted issues of moment before the voters. A Louisville political observer declared today it is "the race and the duel primary Kentucky has had in years," and predicted a very light vote.

United States Senator A. O. Stanley, democrat, is opposed for re-nomination by John J. Howe, of Carrollton, and in the first republican senatorial primary in several years, Judge J. J. Beahm, of Somerset, and Lexington, and Fred M. Sackett, Louisville, are the candidates.

Congressman Langley, who recently was convicted in federal courts on charges of conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, is running against E. Scott Duff, of Chavies. Two democrats are seeking the nomination in this normally republican district.

All of the incumbents, with the exception of Joseph W. Morris, are seeking reelection. Congressman Morris is serving the unexpired term of the late J. Campbell Cantrell.

One woman, Mrs. Hilda E. Ogden, a "dirt farmer" at Milford, Bracken county, is the only woman candidate for congress in the primary. Mrs. Ogden is a sheep raiser and drives her own tractor on the farm when necessary. She is the widow of William B. Ogden, former Cincinnati newspaperman. Mrs. Ogden is running in the republican primary in the ninth district against two men.

Several state court officials also are to be voted upon tomorrow.

FOURTH MAN ARRESTED IN CAROLINA SLAYING

Wilmington, N. C., August 1.—C. W. Stewart, fourth man sought in connection with the slaying of Officer Leon George and Deputy U. S. Marshal Sam Lilly Tuesday night, surrendered to Hoyt Kennedy, Phoenix merchant, this afternoon.

Stewart was turned over to Sheriff Lewis, of Brunswick county, and carried to jail at Southport.

Immediately after his arrest, Elmer Stuart, his son, and Jack Ramsey, arrested Wednesday in connection with the killing, were removed from the Southport jail to the city prison at Wilmington. The Stuart, Ramsey and Linwood Tindall, the latter held here as an accessory to the murder, will be given a preliminary hearing at Southport Wednesday morning.

In connection with the slaying of Officer George and Deputy United States Marshal Lilly, armed posses of Brunswick citizens today toured the county, warning suspected bootleggers to cease operations or quit the county, according to information received here tonight from I. D. Harrellson, of Winabow.

The action followed a mass meeting in Funston community last night, at which a law and order league was formed, Mr. Harrellson said.

COOLIDGE CUTS CALLS TO WORK UPON SPEECH

Washington, August 1.—Having reduced his engagements to a minimum, President Coolidge again today spent all of his spare time on his notification address.

Charles B. Warren, retiring ambassador to Mexico, arrived for a several days' visit, during which time he will formally tender his resignation. Inasmuch as Mr. Warren was chairman of the platform committee at the republican national convention, his visit at this time will give Mr. Coolidge opportunity to consult with him regarding the notification address as related to the party platform.

George Harvey, former ambassador to Great Britain, and a member of the white house frequently in the past few weeks, was a guest with Mr. Warren at luncheon today at the white house, and it was assumed that the political questions were touched upon. No other conferences of a political nature were held today by Mr. Coolidge.

MISSISSIPPI BANKER DIES IN AUTO CRASH

Memphis, Tenn., August 1.—S. W. Owen, president of the Citizens Bank of Tunica, Miss., and a member of the Mississippi senate from Tunica and Coahoma counties, was crushed to death when the automobile in which he was riding tumbled over a 25-foot embankment near Lake View, Miss., 15 miles south of Memphis, last night or early today.

A passerby discovered overturned automobile beneath it shortly after day-break today.

Mr. Owen was 49 years old. In addition to his banking interests he was one of the largest landowners in Tunica county.

J. W. SAFFORD IS DEAD

Machinist Injured When Hit by Wooden Block.

As the result of internal injuries received Thursday night in the shop of the Ray Lumber company, 881 North Boulevard, where he was employed as a machinist, J. W. Safford, 40, of 22 Whitehall Terrace, died in a private hospital early Friday morning. His body was removed to the chapel of Ivan Carmichael, at East Point.

Safford was hurt when struck in the right side of his abdomen by a wooden block which slipped from the machine when it came in contact with the blade of the rip saw, it is said.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Horace; his father, Harry Safford; two sisters, Mrs. A. Hill and Mrs. Annie Stowers, and one brother, Charles Safford.

American-made motor fire engines will replace the horse-drawn equipment at Old Harbor, China.

MYSTERY VICTIM

LeGRAY THAXTON.

HUNT FOR WOMEN IN MYSTERY CONTINUES

Continued from First Page.

Office was undisturbed. About $70 of this was in the cash register and $30 on top of the desk.

Threatened Suicide.

The most important evidence before the coroner's jury as fixing a motive for suicide was the testimony of T. H. Rolader, 56 Shelnutts street, who stated that about 8:30 o'clock Thursday night young Thaxton had declared his intention of ending his own life, saying that he had cost his father $10,000. Rolader said he did not believe Thaxton to be serious and thought nothing more of it until he learned Friday morning of his friend's death.

T. J. Thaxton, of 361 Lee street, father of the victim, told Coroner Paul Donohoe, at the inquest, that he had not been called upon at any time to get his son out of trouble, and that the only money the boy had ever received had been voluntarily given him. "My boy could not have been despondent over any trouble or expense he caused me," the father told the coroner.

Rolader stated that he and young Thaxton had been drinking together Thursday afternoon and that Thaxton grew very despondent. A portion of Rolader's story was corroborated by a negro, Will Robertson, who said he had purchased some liquor for young Thaxton.

Trouble With Woman.

W. Walton, a jitney driver, stated that about a week ago young Thaxton had had trouble with a woman, whose name he did not know, and that she had threatened his life. The coroner did not attach much importance to this evidence.

Thaxton's body was found by C. B. Johnson, of 48 Whitney street, Hapeville, a jitney driver, who went inside of the office when Thaxton did not come out after Johnson had blown his horn repeatedly. Johnson rushed out and notified two passengers in his car, H. S. Ifte, of 32 Rosedale drive, and W. M. Dodd, 24 St. Augustine place, and they notified the police.

His body was taken to Grady hospital in the automobile of Hunter & Blanchard company, their ambulance being out on another call at the time. He died about two hours after reaching the hospital.

SIX AUTO ACCIDENTS REPORTED IN DAY

Continued from First Page.

was driven through the windshield and struck Parker's head, fracturing his skull, it is said.

Others hurt Friday were Motorcycle Policeman P. B. Dailey, who was thrown a distance of 30 to 40 feet when a tire burst on his machine as he was chasing a liquor car; Edward Pillsbury, 18, of Cedar Keys, Fla., and John Williams, 9-year-old negro boy.

Officer Dailey's escape from death has puzzled both police assigned to investigate and surgeons at the Grady hospital. The speedometer on his motorcycle stopped at 84, indicating that 84 miles per hour was the maximum speed his machine attained just before the wreck.

Pursuing Whisky Car.

The officer was injured in East Fair street, near Whiteford avenue, when the tire on the front wheel of his motorcycle blew out. He was pursuing a swift roadster, reported to have contained whisky.

The chase of the alleged whisky car began at East Fair street and South Boulevard. The officer's attention was attracted to the car by the loud profanity of one of two men sitting in the machine. When the driver looked around and saw the officer, he started in high speed, which was increased as the officer pursued. Near Whiteford avenue, the tire on the motorcycle burst, throwing the officer hurtling through the air and pitching him violently to the pavement.

With both knees sprained, badly bruised and cut, his back and abdomen hurt, Officer Dailey got into a passing car and went to Grady hospital, leaving for home when bandaged up and making a report of the affair to Captain M. V. Barnett.

Boy Hit by Car.

Pillsbury was injured on the Douglasville road, about a mile this side of Douglasville. He was helping repair a punctured tire on a car when a high-powered machine approached and struck him from the rear. The car increased its speed instead of stopping after the accident, it was reported.

Surgeons at Grady hospital, where Pillsbury was treated, said his ankle was fractured. He also was badly bruised and cut about the body.

Pillsbury was en route home from the citizens' military training camp, at Camp McClellan, near Anniston, Ala. He was riding in a car driven by Richard Barnett, of Jacksonville, Fla., Rufus Kernan, of Thomas, Lockhart, also of Jacksonville, were with them.

The negro boy was hurt at Fitzgerald and Decatur streets, when he was knocked down by an automobile driven by W. V. Garrett, of 685 East Fair street. His injuries were slight bruises and cuts.

Garrett told the police the boy stepped into Fitzgerald street right in front of his car, and that the accident was unavoidable.

Police caught 69 new traffic cases Friday, 29 of which charged violations of traffic ordinances; eleven speeding, twelve reckless driving, fourteen violations of dinner ordinances and three operating automobiles while under the influence of whisky.

July building permits set a year's record for Atlanta with a total of $1,712,358, the largest of which was for the new 25-story office building planned for Peachtree and James streets, it was revealed at the city building inspector's office Friday.

YEAR'S RECORD SET BY JULY BUILDING

July building permits set a year's record for Atlanta with a total of $1,712,358, the largest of which was for the new 25-story office building planned for Peachtree and James streets, it was revealed at the city building inspector's office Friday.

Another big permit, for the Wynne-Laughton office building at Carnegie Way and Ellis street, is expected to boost August totals to a similar figure. The permit had not been issued Friday.

Totals by months during the first seven months of 1924 follow: January, $1,440,562; February, $1,017,473; March, $1,258,017; April, $1,540,233; May, $1,698,324; June, $841,224; July, $1,712,358.

ELLINGER TO SPEAK AT FORUM LUNCHEON

Dr. Taze U. Ellinger, of the Armour Live Stock bureau, Chicago, will be principal speaker at the regular semi-monthly Forum luncheon Wednesday, in the Chamber of Commerce building. His subject will be "Why and How More Live Stock Should be Grown in the Southeast."

Agricultural agents of all railroads entering Atlanta, and representatives of the state department of agriculture and the State College of Agriculture have been invited to the luncheon, which is sponsored by the service committee of the chamber.

Crop reporting by airplane has been found to give more timely and accurate results than by other methods.

Special Summer Rates, $9.00 per day up, Grove Park Inn, Asheville. Finest Resort Hotel in the World.—(adv.)

Today Last Day of Shelnutts' Price-Slashing Unloading Sale!

All day today and until 10:30 p. m. Your last chance to take advantage of this unparalleled sacrifice of Ladies', Men's and Children's Ready-to-Wear, Shoes, Furnishings, etc. For the last day of this tremendously successful sale we have cut prices, regardless of profit, cost or value! Let nothing keep you away if you value real genuine savings on guaranteed quality merchandise.

Prices Drop to "Zero!" Come With the Crowds!

$4.00 Ladies' Silk Sweaters, $2.95
The very newest styles and colors.

$7.95 All-Wool 2-Pants Suits for Boys, $5.00

Men's Union Suits, 89c
Genuine B. V. D., Sealpax and Topkix Brands. Sizes 36 to 46, but not all sizes in all brands.

25c Extra Large Huck Towels, 17½c Each
For a dozen, $2.00.

35c Dress Gingham, 19c
All standard brands — Amoskeag, Utility and Hampshire, 32 inches wide. Buy all you want, it will soon be school time.

20c Highland Special Bleaching Yard Wide, 12½c
Limit 20 yards to customer.

25c Ensign Percales, 15c
Light grounds, variety of small figured, striped, dotted and shirting stripes.

20c Yard-Wide Brown Sheeting, 12½c Yard
A wonderful value.

350 MORE SUMMER DRESSES!

They're going fast, but you'll still find all sizes, colors and materials to pick from in this last 350 high-grade Summer Dresses of this notable sale.

Wonderful variety of styles and colors — dotted, figured and checked voiles in dainty light and dark colors, trimmed with all-over embroidery! Others trimmed with organdy — also high-grade Gingham Dresses in many colors and checks, some trimmed with organdy collars and cuffs — others in solids, plaided ruffles, bound and embroidered.

While They Last

50c Ladies' White Lisle Hose, 25c
Genuine high-grade mercerized Silk Lisle Stockings.

$1.00 Boys' Athletic Union Suits, 69c
Genuine "B. V. D." and Sealpax. You can now buy the best at the price of the cheaper ones. Sizes to 28.

$5.00 Men's Palm Beach Pants, $3.50
About 200 pairs in a variety of neat stripe and solid light and dark colors.

$2.25 Men's Pajamas, $1.39
Sizes A, B and C. Assorted colors. A bargain.

$4.50 White Pumps and Sandals, $2.45
Beautiful white canvas kid trimmed Cut-Out Pumps and Sandals; a real $4.50 value.

$3.50 Ladies' All-Wool Bathing Suits, $1.45
About 130 all-wool Suits, variety of colors and color combinations, just to close out the entire lot quick you may have your unrestricted choice now at $1.45. Sizes 36 to 44.

Ladies' One-Strap House Slippers, 95c
Broad and comfortable with rubber heel.

$1.00 Pure Thread Silk and Fiber Silk Hose, 69c
Every wanted color, real $1.00 values.

$4.00 Men's Munson Last Shoes, $2.95
For today only 200 pairs high-grade Munson last Army style Shoes, genuine Goodyear welts and well worth $4.00, today, while the lot lasts, $2.95.

$1.00 Pure Thread Silk and Fiber Silk Hose, 69c
Every wanted color, real $1.00 values.

$2.50 Khaki Knickers, $1.45 and $1.69 for Misses
Sizes up to 20.

25c Gibraltar Standard Gingham, 17½c Yard
Every yard a big saving over what you pay regularly. 32 inches wide.

$19.95 Ladies' Dresses, $9.95
In all the new shades. Crepe de Chine and Flat Crepe. Sizes 16 to 40; to see them is to buy them.

$1.49 Boys' Wash Play Suits, 79c
Good quality light and dark patterns. Ages 3 to 6.

Ladies' Sateen Petticoats, 95c In All Colors

75c Men's Union Suits, 49c
Full cut and made of good quality.

27-in. Red Diamond Bird's-Eye Ten Yards, $1.89
Sanitary sealed package.

69c Fancy Bath Towels, 39c
20x40 heavyweight in colored patterns and embossed designs.

CHOICE TODAY $1.25

Remember these dresses are not ordinary cheap sale dresses or house dresses, but strictly high-grade, beautiful afternoon and street styles. Actual value averages $3.50 with many in the lot worth up to $5.00. All sizes from 16 to 52½. Unrestricted choice of the entire lot only $1.25.

Better Come Early!

More Men's Shirts
The whole city is talking about our Dollar Shirt Sale. We have just added 300 more fresh, clean sample Shirts to our dollar lot Shirts that are worth up to $2.50. Your choice $1.00.

35c Children's Lisle Sox, 19c
Cuties and Buster Brown Brand.

$3.95 Men's Wool Pants, $2.69
Men, these are real bargains. Come see them and you are sure to buy them.

$6.50 Emerson Shoes, $2.50
While they last. 250 pairs, good sizes, but not all sizes in all styles. Mostly A, B and C widths. Truly a wonderful bargain.

69c Children's ¾ length Sox, 39c
Sizes to 9.

$1.50 Men's Night Shirts, 95c
This is a sample lot, full cut and made of good quality muslin.

$5.00 Ladies' Pumps and Oxfords, Now $1.95
Out goes another big lot of those fine Pumps and Oxfords, broken lots and sizes, but high quality, really wonderful bargains and values up to $5.00.

10c Turkish Wash Rags, 5c Each
While the lot lasts.

$3.95 Men's Wool Bathing Suits, $1.45
About 100 all-wool Bathing Suits, variety of colors and combinations for a quick clearance, today, choice, $1.45.

J. B. SHELNUTT CO.

33 SOUTH BROAD ST. THROUGH BLOCK TO 28-30 SOUTH FORSYTH ST.

TAKES NEW RUSS PLAN BY PLANE TO ENGLAND

Moscow, August 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—After a series of hurried conferences with the government respecting the present status of the Anglo-Russian conference, Mr. Rakovsky, the principal soviet delegate, left yesterday for London by airplane.

In collaboration with the council of commissars he has formulated a set of new proposals for submission to the British government, which, in the opinion of responsible officials here, removes the obstacles which hitherto have hindered a successful outcome of the conference.

DREAM OF DEATH LED TO FRANKS' MURDER

Continued from First Page.

Youths had pleaded guilty and such testimony was barred. Clarence S. Darrow and Walter Bachrach, defense counsel, had asked Justice Caverly to hear all the evidence the youths had to offer before sentencing them to hang.

Rules to Hear Testimony.

The judge ruled that he had the right to hear such testimony as evidence of a possible mitigating circumstance. His decision came Friday after a series of heated clashes between the prosecution and defense.

Both Leeb and Leopold virtually were isolated from other children during their earlier years, through a system of training under which governesses and nurses had charged of them. Their parents took little time to instruct them, Dr. White testified. Hence, he said, they were forced to create their own worlds, to erect their own play structures, to people them with creatures of their own fancies.

Leeb was capable of feeling remorse, but otherwise his emotional reactions were not normal. Dr. White said. After his arrest, according to the physician, Leeb sent word to his father to disinherit him and let him hang.

Six Motives for Murder.

"I asked Leeb to name the specific reasons why he and Leopold killed the Franks boy and he gave me these," the physician testified.

1—Joy in crime.

2—The thrill of committing murder.

3—The experience of waiting to see whether discovery would come.

4—Publicity.

5—The widespread discussion which would ensue.

6—Last, and least, for money."

Crowe fought the introduction of the alienists' testimony at every step and interposed frequent objections on the ground that the testimony plainly related to mental conditions and could not properly be offered as a basis for determining mitigation, insanity being a defense under the law. Most of his objections were overruled.

Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy, sat and listened to Dr. White's testimony in open-mouthed astonishment. His face was fixed in grim lines throughout the day. He looked weary and disgusted and apparently was anxious that the defense should conclude its case so that the slayers of his son might be taken to the gallows.

To a friend he confided that he saw nothing in the experience cited by Dr. White as denoting mental disorder in Leopold and Leeb that was not common to his own children and to all persons during childhood.

Leeb and Leopold did not smile once during the day. If these youths are as vain and egotistical as their alienists declared them to be, their egos were receiving a series of rude shocks. They heard themselves depicted as children who never had grown up, as youths who fancied themselves superior, when in fact they had marked inferiorities and delusions and should have had confinement.

Death Dream Came in April.

The death fantasy, which pervaded the children's minds, was said to have come to Leeb in April when he and Leopold started to discuss killing somebody, Dr. White declared.

"I'm not talking of killing their own relatives, of doing away with their own parents," the witness said. "They abandoned those ideas, not through sentiment, but because they felt the plan was not practical, that too much of a hue and cry would be raised in their own families, and that this commotion would interfere with their plans."

Asked to define his conclusions about Leeb and Leopold, Dr. White replied that both at an early age manifested anti-social tendencies, which became a dangerous factor later in life, and which would result, if not checked in both boys, in complexes of a more malignant nature than the ones that had resulted in murder.

Uses Boys' Nicknames.

The major part of a skeleton report to which Dr. White referred during his testimony was the use of nicknames by Leeb. The physician usually referred to Leeb as "Dickie" and to Leopold as "Babe," names that he associated with the boys.

His attitude, as expressed in his testimony and bearing, was that of a preceptor who had tried to find out what was the matter with two bad boys and was now telling the faculty all about his conclusions.

In a preliminary question and answer dialogue between Walter Bachrach and Dr. White, the latter described how a laboratory for research and examination had been fitted up in a large cell at the county jail. Leeb and Leopold were kept in the cell sometimes singly, sometimes together. After rather lengthy wrangling between Crowe and Bachrach as to what the physician ought to testify to, Dr. White finally began presenting one of the most unusual stories ever told on a witness stand, a story by a specialist, couched in plain English of how dreams led two boys to kill.

Live Inner Life.

"There is a compensatory inner mental life which makes up for the disappointments of the outer," Dr. White said. "In this life all desires that do not come true in actual life as realities. It is in this inner mental life we learn the real truth about people."

"Richard Leeb was not very well and rather weakly, up to the time he was six or seven years old. He had a governess who was rather unusual, a woman who in later life developed delusions. She was a rigid disciplinarian. She presented Dickie from associating with other boys of his own age and this became a material factor in the building of his fantasies."

"Dickie expresses himself by saying that when he was about 14 he first really came into the world. He grew up overnight, he told me. He was projected into the world in early adolescence."

"Now, in order to escape the rigid discipline of his female mentor, Dickie got into the habit of telling her lies," the physician continued. "This grew into a tendency to lie about serious matters in his later history. During this period he became intimate with a woman who later became a delusional and who was sentenced to jail, Jack Menger."

Leeb's College Career.

"At the age of 14 he suffered from cerebral convulsions sustained during an automobile accident. He was unconscious for some time after the accident."

"In the college he had an interesting and unusual career. He was a brilliant student. He was especially interested in sex matters. He was interested in the character of John C. Calhoun, who he regarded as the leader of a lost cause. He studied morals and sociology."

"I asked him what he thought of the moral order of the past and his own conception of the moral order. He replied that his opinion was that it was a good deal of non-sense. In a specific instance he said that he believed it was all right for a down-trodden man to take what he could get. He seemed to have a feeling for the underdog."

Leeb had been following Dr. White's remarks intently. He nodded in appreciation.

Had Own Plan of Life.

"In his own life Dickie followed the line of least resistance," the physician continued. "He had no plan of life. He had no idea for what he was fitting himself. In the scientific world he became interested in paleontology, because he believed that taught him the truth about man."

"Because of his forced intellect he was thrown into association during the early years of his college life with boys four and five years older. This did not seem to him to be unusual. So he began drinking largely in imitation of older boys, trying to appear grown up. He also says that drinking helped dull his principles, such as he had. They were curious principles."

Convictions Not Clear-Cut.

"Dickie says he had no vital interest in life. He felt he was not wanted in his home. There was no one in his home with whom he had established intimate relations. There was no one in the home to whom he could go. A governess had taken the place of his mother."

"A burst of conversation, in which a shrill feminine note predominated, arose in the courtroom and the judge rapped for order. Mothers and fathers were getting a serious object lesson in child training through testimony in a murder case."

"The lies Dickie indulged in at first were negligible lies, Dr. White said. 'Later they were positive. He invented lots of things. They had a close relation to his dreams.'

"During his examination this boy showed a very positive attitude to questions that he had no clear-cut convictions."

No Sense of Right and Wrong. Suddenly changing from a description of Leeb's detailed history, Dr. White said:

"He never could distinguish between right and wrong."

Jumping up Crowe exclaimed: "That's insanity. I ask your honor to draw a jury at once."

"No," replied Justice Caverly, who directed the witness to proceed.

"Leeb had a general attitude of uncertainty and doubt," Dr. White resumed. "About the age of nine he began to develop marked fantasies, dreams that became real to him. He speaks of them as pictorializations and considered them as part of his waking life, devoted, indeed, to fantasies."

"Isn't that called building air castles?" Crowe interposed.

Fantasies of Horror.

"Yes, in a measure, but these were more than the ordinary air castles of children," Dr. White replied. "These were unusual fantasies, recognized of a peculiar type by all who have studied mental conditions. Horror and death sometimes were in them."

The fantasies assumed the following forms:

"That he was in jail. He constantly saw himself confined behind the bars. He would see people peer at him through the bars, often naked girls. Sometimes he would dig a hole in the ground and fall into it. He thought of himself as a great criminal. He considered himself almost a criminal mind of the centuries, directing a band of super-criminals."

Often Played Detective.

"At times Dickie thought of himself as sick in bed, with the underworld coming to him for direction and advice. He played the part of detective and actually shadowed people in the streets for hours at a time. He would out what he was doing and where they were going."

"Why, this boy even went through the streets, streets crowded with real people, and he would see only other master criminals, like himself, making motions with his hands to them, which he said were secret signals understood only by the criminal world. He enjoyed this game, this fantasy, very much."

"And it is significant that after he got in jail, he was in the same situation in reality that he had been in in fancy. He said he was living out the pictures he had seen earlier in life. He still had fantasies in jail. As a child he used to take his Teddy bear to bed with him and tell him of his imaginary exploits. His ways would start his conversations with 'You know that.'"

Talked to Himself.

"In his cell this boy has started conversations with dream people and still he uses this expression. It recurs in his ordinary speech."

"It seems that the planning of these boys in the minds of these boys and for months was a daily subject of discussion."

Then Dr. White took up the abduction and slaying of the Franks boy on the day of the trial. He had been lured into an automobile by the killers, had played tennis with Leeb.

Planned 'Perfect Crime.'

"The object of this crime was to commit a perfect crime," the alienist said. "They wanted to see a crime accomplished that had been through and completely planned in all details. They wanted a crime that would be an intellectual feat, one that could not be solved, one that would be a matter of concern to the community. These boys did not need money and money was their least thought. At the time the crime was committed Leeb had several hundred dollars in the bank."

"Dickie was possessed of all sorts of peculiar fancies. He told me that one time he fired a bullet through his shirt and then went to see a young lady whom he told about a wholly imaginary encounter with a woman. Two pictures of Dickie as a child, one as a cowboy, one as a policeman, show a peculiar strained expression on his face."

At this point the defense introduced a letter written to Leeb by the governess who had brought him up. The letter in effect begged him to tell her of dangerous girls and temperamental vagaries.

"At one time I asked Dickie how he felt about his past life, whether he believed he had gotten out of life. He said: 'I believe I've gotten all there was out of life.'"

Felt Mental Deficiencies.

"I finally asked him how he felt he had been getting on the past two years and he replied that he did not believe he was on a par mentally with what he had been. He said it was not as easy for him to accomplish things as it had been some time before."

"As a result of these interviews what were your findings?" Bachrach asked.

"There are very significant findings," the physician replied. "One is the rapid, progressive growth of an anti-social tendency. He wanted to escape the censure of his governess. The other has reference to the facts of his life. Fantasies are normal characteristics of child life, but the fantasies of Dickie were unusual."

"We don't accomplish anything we haven't imagined. The fantasy life of Dickie strikes one as somewhat estranged from ordinary fantasies. Its characteristics are unusual."

"The other has reference to the facts of his life. The normal play life of a child."

Emotions of Child.

"On the emotional side the boy has remained a child. The thing he did grew from the dream world into actual, real life. Dickie plays the part of the master criminal in real life. There is a tendency for an abnormal fantasy life and his inability to distinguish between the real world and the fantasy world is his most marked characteristic. He has lost the capacity to distinguish between fantasy and reality. He has grown nearly to twenty years of age but he has carried his infantile emotional tendencies with him into the adult world."

Wherever we find intellect and emotions in him they have grown farther and farther apart. These boys know and feel they know at two levels of development, instead of one. And Dickie is capable of developing a very malignant spirit."

Leopold Estranged.

When the time came for Dr. White to begin his testimony about Leopold, Crowe entered an objection, which again was overruled.

"Babe, at about 5 or 6 years, attended a school which had become a girl's school," the witness said. "There was only one other boy. He said he didn't feel out of place until later, when boys teased him. Then he entered another school, a different kind of a school, a place where his previous culture caused him to feel apart and out of place. So, at an early age, he became a victim of social estrangement with various latent and overt aggressiveness. He had a precocious intellect. He spoke his first word at four months."

"An early age his interest in birds manifested itself. He grew into an authority on birds, teaching and lecturing on ornithology. He was interested in fiction. He was familiar with various legends, myths and fables that were accompanied by four sets of muscular movements. He developed in early life a feeling that he was different from others, that he was superior. He was an exceedingly active youth."

Lived as an Atheist.

"The word unique is used by him to describe his activities; frequently he would sit up all night waiting for the coming of his gods. He was thrown with boys several years older than himself. The tender sympathies and emotions which average people possess were repressed. It was a philosophy of complete and absolute selfishness, a philosophy in which emotion had no part. It was an atheistic philosophy, a philosophy in which God had no part."

"He and Dickie believed they were supermen and this idea appears to have been strongly predominant in their minds. He pictures himself as the slave and Dickie as the king. Always one of them would perform some heroic deed for the other. Sometimes he would be the king and Dickie the slave. He extended this fantasy, which lasted through the years to others."

"He said it was quite true that Dickie lied, but that it was also true that Dickie not only approached perfection in his lying but surpassed it."

"One time in law school he took part in a discussion as to whether supermen should be above the law. He picked out studies to set him apart from other boys. He felt his knowledge would mark him as a man set apart."

Sought New Conquests.

"Babe was seeking always for new worlds to conquer. He looked forward to this trial as one of the most keenly interesting intellectual experiences in his life. He's disappointed because he feels that murderers live much the same as any other people."

"The object of this trial, as this boy's life was that he visualized himself as being abused."

Dr. White finished his testimony with a statement to the effect of the main fault with "Babe" was his conviction of superiority. This, he said, might have originated from the fact that Leopold as a child was small of stature and had never developed normally.

Crowe then launched into a brief cross-examination during which Dr. White said he was being paid $250 a day for his services to the defense.

Following the end of the day's session Darrow said he expected to put Leopold on the stand for the first time in a debate with the other most eminent in the country. He expects the case to continue until the end of next week.

Darrow does not believe that Leopold or Leeb will hang.

"It ought to be quite apparent that we are proving mitigating circumstances by showing the conditions under which these boys grew up and the unreal world in which they live," he said. "I do not believe that humane judge would hang them."

BIENNIAL SESSION FRIENDS SANGUINE

Continued from First Page.

Saturday session this week was backed by opponents of the biennial sessions bill, who desired to bring the measure to a final vote at a time when there would not be sufficient members present to pass it.

Representative Milner, vice chairman of the rules committee, presided at the session, which was held in the Senate chamber.

"There are some young fledglings in this house," said Mr. Milner, "who know more about running it than the members of the rules committee, individually and collectively." Bowden, of McDuffie, and McCutcheon, of Walker, rose to interrupt the Dodge county representative, but he refused to yield the floor.

Representative Bowden then stated he did not wish to ask a question but merely wanted the gentleman from Dodge to repeat his remark, as he had not heard it.

Watson's Name Brought In.

Later, Representative Bowden rose to a point of personal privilege and charged that Representative Milner had cast aspersions on his ability to represent his constituents in McDuffie county. Referring to the late U. S. Senator Thomas E. Watson, Mr. Bowden brought protracted applause from the house.

"Tom Watson is dead, but McDuffie county did not die with him."

In a single grave in McDuffie there are more brains than are in the heads of any two living men in Georgia today, including the gentleman from Dodge."

Mr. Bowden continued that, with the exception of the Dodge representative, every member of the house and all his constituents knew he was able to properly represent McDuffie county, and concluded:

"If I could not use more discretion than the gentleman from Dodge has used during this session, I would resign, not only as vice chairman of the rules committee, but also as a member of the general assembly."

Warned Against Personalities.

While Representative Bowden had the floor, Representative New, of Laurens, rose for a parliamentary inquiry, and drew attention to the rule which says no member may reflect on the personal integrity of another while speaking under the personal privilege rule. Speaker Sells drew the attention of Mr. Bowden to the rule and warned him not to violate it, after which he proceeded.

Replying to Mr. Bowden, Representative New stated he did not believe the gentleman from McDuffie had violated any rule of the house, but did think he had violated Robert Hubbard's rule five, which is "don't take yourself too damn seriously."

Representative Jones Perryman, of Talbot, then probably saved the biennial sessions resolution in his capacity as vice chairman of the committee, would have meant, by moving the house recess for fifteen minutes, to give the rules committee opportunity to meet and, if it saw fit, to bring in a resolution postponing final action on the bill to a definite time.

Set for Next Tuesday.

This was done and the rules committee was set for Tuesday, August 10, to 7, to set the date for the vote on the biennial sessions bill, after the period of unanimous consent. Representative Milner, leader of the fight against the bill, did not bring in his resolution in his capacity as vice chairman of the committee. Representative Copeland, of Lowndes, presented the report in his place, after the opening shot in the national campaign in New York state.

While Mr. Davis had no fixed engagements today, he conferred again with Thomas L. Chabourn, New York lawyer and financier, and James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany. There were reports that both Mr. Chabourn and Mr. Gerard would have places on the executive finance committee, with a far-western man probably as chairman, but these were without confirmation.

Leaving his headquarters earlier than has been his custom, Mr. Davis had a long automobile ride over Long Island en route to his home. Arriving at Locust Valley, he and Mrs. Davis went for a swim in the ocean before dinner. Afterward, the nominee devoted more time to his acceptance address, which he hopes to put in final form tomorrow.

Unconcerned If None Passed.

Mr. Harrell referred to the special calendar of bills arranged by the rules committee for the balance of the present session and asserted that if none of the bills passed, the greater number of the voters would be totally unconcerned.

"Look at this," he said, "there is a bill to amend the special act to regulate the manner in which the canal court charges in justice of the peace courts. How much do you think the people of the state care whether or not we pass on that? Not a tinker's dam."

Position Not Endangered.

However, the changes are not of such nature that the French premier, who has been in the position at home, or that credit can be detracted from the French efforts to bring the conference to a successful termination so that the Daves plan in case a defect should appear, opportunity to prove their worth as a remedy for Europe's economic ills.

The experts, including Mr. Logan and Mr. Young and Mr. Downing, of Great Britain, who sat around the Downing street conference table until the early hours this morning, returned at 11 o'clock this morning and worked throughout the day, with only interruptions for meals, over Mr. Herriot's plans, so as to have them acceptable to all the delegates. Through the day the chief technical points of the Daves plan, while Mr. Logan has participated actively during the final sessions of the committee, where he was repeatedly called upon to assist in reconciling divergent Anglo-French viewpoints.

Tribute Paid to Logan.

Tonight Mr. Young characterized Mr. Logan as "the chronic peace-maker of the London conference."

When the experts left Downing street this morning, the French proposals had been adopted to the point involving modification in the Daves plan in case a defect should appear, and threaten its efficiency. Proposals for minor modifications were accepted without prolonged debate; but when the French urged that the powers of the transfer committee be submitted to their general scheme of arbitration, there developed very strong opposition, because this committee is the heart of the Daves plan and it is organized as an executive body. The French proposal to arbitrate the question whether financial aid in Germany was occurring to defeat the transfer committee in its work was the subject of prolonged debate that finally resulted in an agreement that if the transfer committee men should be divided evenly—that is, three to three—on such an issue, then the question might be put to arbitration.

COOLIDGE ENCOURAGED AT POSSIBLE SOLUTION.

Washington, August 1.—President Coolidge, while fully realizing the difficulties that must be met, is very much encouraged that some successful solution of the reparations problem will be found by the London conference.

Advices that the president has received indicate satisfactory progress. It was said a white house Friday.

HOOPER DISCUSSES STEPS TO COMPEL RAIL TESTIMONY

Washington, August 1.—Steps looking to initiation of a test case to determine the power of the railroad labor board to compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses were taken today at a conference between Chairman Hooper, of the board, and officials of the department of justice.

Mr. Hooper said the test case would be sought in connection with the refusal of members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers to appear and testify as individuals, not representing their respective organizations, in the western railroad labor dispute which the board has taken up.

CAMPAIGN CHIEFS AFTER FIRESIDE VOTE

Continued from First Page.

For every 100 people who voted, there were 96 who did not vote.

A good example of how a large vote affects the situation was in Kentucky, which sent the state percentage to the polls in 1920. To every 100 votes, there were only 24 who stayed at home. Though Kentucky is regarded as a democratic state, Cox carried the state by only slightly over 4,000 out of over 900,000 votes cast for the republican and democratic candidates.

Mississippi stood at the bottom in 1920, only $2,492 voting out of 876,106 over 21 years of age, or 730 staying away from the polls to every 100 who voted.

Pressure On Pivots.

The best percentage in 1920 was significantly for the present campaign, in the group of states where all three movements are going to state in the hardest fight, including Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North and South Dakota, Kansas and Nebraska. The stay-at-home vote here if it were as high as the stay-at-home vote in the result, the percentage was 59 not voting to 100 who went to the polls.

Campaign managers are taking the stay-at-home vote very much into consideration. William M. Butler, chairman of the republican national committee, recently called attention to the effect he believed the rules would have in drawing out those who were staying away from the polls.

The three movements are being aided also by a non-partisan movement started here recently by a local attorney, Simon Michelet, formerly secretary to the late Senator Knute Nelson, of Minnesota. He has begun the organization of national get-out-the-vote clubs, which is making good headway.

AGREEMENT ON DAVES PLAN NEAR COMPLETE

Continued from First Page.

highest tributes to the conciliatory attitude of the French delegates.

Premier Herriot's principle of arbitrating difficulties which may arise has carried the day, although nearly every point in the proposals he submitted Wednesday afternoon has been altered.

Position Not Endangered.

However, the changes are not of such nature that the French premier, who has been in the position at home, or that credit can be detracted from the French efforts to bring the conference to a successful termination so that the Daves plan in case a defect should appear, opportunity to prove their worth as a remedy for Europe's economic ills.

The experts, including Mr. Logan and Mr. Young and Mr. Downing, of Great Britain, who sat around the Downing street conference table until the early hours this morning, returned at 11 o'clock this morning and worked throughout the day, with only interruptions for meals, over Mr. Herriot's plans, so as to have them acceptable to all the delegates. Through the day the chief technical points of the Daves plan, while Mr. Logan has participated actively during the final sessions of the committee, where he was repeatedly called upon to assist in reconciling divergent Anglo-French viewpoints.

Tribute Paid to Logan.

Tonight Mr. Young characterized Mr. Logan as "the chronic peace-maker of the London conference."

When the experts left Downing street this morning, the French proposals had been adopted to the point involving modification in the Daves plan in case a defect should appear, and threaten its efficiency. Proposals for minor modifications were accepted without prolonged debate; but when the French urged that the powers of the transfer committee be submitted to their general scheme of arbitration, there developed very strong opposition, because this committee is the heart of the Daves plan and it is organized as an executive body. The French proposal to arbitrate the question whether financial aid in Germany was occurring to defeat the transfer committee in its work was the subject of prolonged debate that finally resulted in an agreement that if the transfer committee men should be divided evenly—that is, three to three—on such an issue, then the question might be put to arbitration.

HABEAS CORPUS WRIT FOR WOMEN IS DENIED

Fort Smith, Ark., August 1.—Petition seeking the issuance of writs of habeas corpus, filed in behalf of Mrs. Jane Holladay and Helen McNeil, held in federal custody in Little Rock on charges of receiving and concealing money alleged to have been stolen in a recent train robbery at Bowcat, Ark., have been denied by Judge Frank A. Youmans in United States district court here, it was learned today.

The two women were arraigned before a United States commissioner at Little Rock Wednesday and ordered held under bond to await action of the federal grand jury.

The petition asking issuance of the habeas corpus writ alleged insufficiency of evidence on the part of the government.

There may not be so much form in women's clothes, but there's a heap of form out of them.—Pittsburg Post.

DAVIS SPENDS DAY ON SPEECH, PLANS

New York, August 1.—John W. Davis devoted virtually his entire time today to consideration of campaign organization plans and the revision of his address accepting the democratic presidential nomination.

Arriving at his headquarters here, from his home on Long Island early in the day, he conferred with his manager, Clem L. Shaver; Thomas J. Spellacy, in charge of eastern headquarters; and George White, of

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL

Editor and General Manager.

Clark Howell, Jr., Business Manager.

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class matter.

Telephone Main 8000

ATLANTA, GA., AUGUST 2, 1924.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By Carrier or Mail.
Daily and 10c. 3 Mo. $2.50 6 Mo. $4.50 1 Yr. $8.00
Sunday, 20c. 3 Mo. $5.00 6 Mo. $9.00 1 Yr. $15.00
By Mail Only.
Single Copies—Daily, 10c. Sunday, 15c.
Foreign—10c. 3 Mo. $7.50 6 Mo. $12.50 1 Yr. $22.50

J. B. HOLLIDAY, Construction Building, sole advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York city by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had at the following places: Broadway and Forty-second street (Times building corner); Schmitt Bros. Agency, 41 Bryant Park; and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Payment for all subscriptions must be made in advance. Payment by check or money order is preferred. Payment by cash is also acceptable. Payment by credit card is not acceptable. Payment by check or money order is preferred. Payment by cash is also acceptable. Payment by credit card is not acceptable.

Member of The Associated Press. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein.

Member of North American Newspaper Alliance. The N. A. N. occupies the same position in the feature field that the A. P. does in the news field. The Constitution is the only newspaper in this section.

DISCREDITING THE STATE.

It is to be hoped that the legislature will not pass the so-called "evolution bill."

If enacted and enforced to the letter the natural sciences, including the various branches of biology, as well as the practical, constructive sciences of animal and plant husbandry, will necessarily have to be dropped from the curriculum of every institution of higher education in Georgia.

Such a course is not only unthinkable, but it would make Georgia, which even now stands at the top in illiteracy and at the bottom in public education, the subject of intellectual ridicule the world over.

Ignorance is the most insurmountable barrier there is to progress; and however much theorists and fanatics may talk about, and write and lecture and attempt to legislate about the "un-Christian" Darwin theory of evolution, the understanding fact is, there is no teacher in Georgia or anywhere else teaching, even by indirection, the so-called "Darwin theory" as generally accepted by the street—that is, that "man descended from an ape," or something of that sort. To say that the natural sciences so teach displays a humiliating lack of information on a great, broad, inspiring subject that is the very soul and spirit of the Christian faith, instead of its antithesis.

On this page are two communications touching the Pope bill, one by C. P. von Herrmann, of Atlanta, and sensible, and Mr. Johnson of Kingston. They are both sound and sensible, and Mr. Johnson makes the point that is especially worthy of stressing, and that is that the so-called "Darwin theory of evolution," as referred to in class work, is nothing more nor less than evolution which is an unmistakable basic science, being the foundation of all the natural sciences.

It certainly should not take one so learned as Mr. Pope, and the members of the committee who have reported his bill favorably, to know that evolution is progress—nothing more, and assuredly nothing less.

Nothing stands still. A plant must either decay or go forward. Life in any form, vegetable or animal, must undergo either evolution or decadence.

We watch the cocoon, a forbidding looking case in which there is life. We see the butterfly, with its proud garment of color and beauty, evolve from it. That is evolution.

We develop, by a system of propagation, a highly efficient type of dairy cow, with possibly a record milk capacity, from a foundation scrub. That is evolution.

Out in California Luther Burbank has developed roses of unusual size and beauty and color—by evolution. He has made great marketable vegetables from the dwarf plant life of the wilds—by evolution.

All that is best in the animal and the plant kingdoms have reached those proud positions of beauty and efficiency and usefulness through a process of evolution.

It may be applied in the moral and material and cultural life of man. It may be applied in business.

Evolution is the driving wheel of progress, and represents all that is beautiful and worthwhile in life; and to those of us who believe in the rewards of eternity it is the inspiration that alone can fit us for a better world. If the basic science of evolution is wrong, then faith in Heaven is shattered.

It is ridiculous, therefore, to ban from the schools the teachings of the basic science of evolution simply because the first great writer on the science of evolution was named Darwin, and because his name has been associated with the popular thought of evolution since. Many things are inexplicable, but we do know that nature is always supreme, and that the hand of a Divine power, and not the hand of man, rules nature.

There is no warrant for worrying over the things we do not understand, and we should encourage, rather than discourage, the throwing of light from any angle on every subject.

The question of descending from an ape is as but vulgarly beside the beauty and truth of nature, and nature itself is evolution.

To say that we shall stop teaching the natural sciences to satisfy fanaticism is to say that we shall decay rather than progress.

This bill should be promptly killed. It deserves that fate in the interest of the good name and the intelligence of Georgians. The enactment of such a measure would make Georgia an object of world-wide ridicule.

God knows we have enough now for which to defend the state against the criticisms of civilization and progress! Don't make matters worse by inflicting upon the state this additional stigma!

SURCHARGE EXTORTION.
The measure providing for a removal of the Pullman surcharge on interstate traffic, is along the line of similar action of other state legislatures.

It is a protest against the temporizing methods of the interstate commerce commission, which inaugurated this subsidy to the railroads to tide them over post-war reconstruction under the mandate of congress that the charges should be discontinued at the moment that the railroads did not need such subsidy to make them self-sustaining. That time has long since passed, and yet the commission, by inexcusable delay in the hearings and in the reports, continues to keep the surcharge in effect.

The general judiciary committee of the Georgia house has reported favorably on the Bennett bill, and the assembly should, by all means, enact the same.

There is not a more inexcusable, indefensible tax imposed upon the people today than this surcharge, which takes out of the pockets of the travelers of this country around $38,000,000 a year and puts it into the treasury of the railroads that do not render any service, or pretend to render any service, for the same. The surcharge is in addition to railroad fare, which is largely in excess of that of the pre-war days, and in addition to the regular charges of the Pullman company, for the privilege of riding in the Pullman cars. That company which is forced to collect this extra tax, gets no benefit from it, for every dollar devised from the surcharge has to be turned over to the railroads, which have gotten a four year taste of this subsidy, and do not propose surrendering it if they can help it.

If the interstate commerce commission continues to temporize with the issue congress will be urged to repeal the law. And in the meantime the states are acting independently in so far as interstate traffic is concerned, just as the measure now under consideration properly proposes that Georgia shall do.

In this connection there appears on this page a communication from a high official of the International Federation of Commercial Travelers, D. K. Flink, of Chicago, protesting against this surcharge.

The railroads of this country are pursuing an unwise course in fighting the abolition of this subsidy. They are inviting support for radical anti-railroad legislation, and some day when it may be too late they will awake to the error of their course in this matter.

OUR COTTON LEADS.

Attempts to grow a high grade cotton have been made for many years in various parts of the world—in China, South America, India and Egypt, but after all American cotton still holds its place at the head of the list.

The following report from England's spinning center relates the experiences encountered with Egyptian cotton, which has for some years been regarded as a formidable rival of the American product:

"Lancashire spinners who have gone over from American to Egyptian cotton are reported to have found the change quite unsatisfactory. They have not had any experience in handling Egyptian cotton, and it is said that they have produced poor yarns which cannot sell at a price commensurate with the cost of raw material. Spinners also complain of an excess of water in the Egyptian cotton that is being received."

Here two things are brought conspicuously into notice. One is that there is still, and perhaps always will be, a strong market for American cotton of good quality, and the other is that it is important for the American cotton grower to produce a high grade of cotton and handle it with care.

Smashing the thermometer will do more good than swearing at it.

"What's the use of having an election," asks the Philadelphia Record, "if half the people don't vote?"

Georgia has 318,000 voters. The 200,000 who will be worth in the market $25,000,000 more than the crops of the past year. Georgia's surface is more than one-fourth covered with growth of pine trees—of various ages.

Just From Georgia

BY FRANK L. STANTON

Little dreamer of the Night.

I.
Little dreamer of the Night,
Tell me, in the morning light
If sleep goe you wings to fly
To the playground of the sky?
Of the playmates you met there
Where the days are ever fair?
Tell me of those realms of light,
Little dreamer of the Night.

II.

Tell me, for I long to know
Where the little dreamers go
When the Night falls dark and deep
And Love kisses them to sleep?
Only this to know is given:
When a dream takes them to heaven,
They return from that far flight
Still to make earth's mornings bright!

III.

Telling Them Now.
The Kansas City Times tells of the good work an "Anti-Morism Brigade" is doing in the town of the Excelsior Springs Standard—
Evidently the Lions' club and the Excelsior Springs Standard are in cahoots to give "flowers to the living" Excelsior Springs citizens. Instead of waiting until a member dies, each week at the luncheon of the club a living member is praised and lauded by the ante-mortem brigade. The Excelsior Springs Standard then runs his picture and the high lights of his life and achievement.

Here was a daughter of not more than 20—fair haired, beautiful and alive with the vibrancy of youth. I had a vision of the sweet-faced girl in my home town—no! women

Flinch, Bill!

I.

Flinch, Bill!
Flinch, water-willows bending,
Where the shade and sunshine blend—
Softly come and go.
Down where the beech-leaves lie,
Down where sassy bluejays cry,
At a crow.

II.

Flinch, Bill!
Flinch, mosses, closely clinging,
Down where speckled perch are spring—
Up to catch a fly.
Where the water, deep and still
Under the sloping hill,
Makes you sigh.

III.

Flinch, Bill!
Dreamin' as your pole is swaying,
Tangled thoughts gone all a-straying,
And your eye
Lookin' up through half-closed lashes,
Through the forest's tangled tangles,
At the sky.

IV.

Flinch, Bill!
While a trout your bait is stealing,
While you're kinder, sorter feeling,
Glad inside.
While you dream, and smoke and rest,
At your chin sinks on your chest,
Satisfied!

—WILL D. MUSE.

Atlanta, Ga.

Tax to Live, and Tax to Die.

Colonel John E. Fench, the veteran "Richmond Philosopher," says—
"This writer has never owned any land and soon will pass on to the great beyond and have to pay ten times as much for a hole in the ground three by six feet. Don't bog down and sweat it. This is the worst of it. You hit your 'a-comin' and a-goin', and no use kickin' now, and you can't kick later."

She'll Know Better Next Time.

A Greensboro girl reports that she was awfully tanned on her vacation.
—Greensboro Herald-Journal.

A Billville Motto.

Let us all be up and doing—something, before they do us.

Another Protest.

Oh, Mister Hot Sun,
It's time you took a rest
And let the cold wind find us
And whistle at his best!

For, in the burning weather,
We're melting, high and low,
An' wishin' with the children,
For the Old Man of the Snow!

Editor Shoppe Tells It.

(From The Dalton Citizen.)
According to themselves, that they seek to advise most everybody else just how to do, and what to do. Such advice costs nothing, and it ought to be worth at least as much as if costs.

Today's Talk

BY GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE TURN OF THOUGHT.

Most of us find it largely through our ability to turn our thoughts from all which depresses and destroys that we are able to face bravely and take up what comes without complaint.

How often we are caught in a depression—worrying over what has not happened and which rarely does.
We do so much lack buoyancy. We pray for the sunshine when there are only clouds and rainfall. But when the clouds and rainfall are gone that prayed-for sunshine fails to clear our gloom.

The pleasurable soul depends upon the ability of its owner to rise above circumstances, and to will a path far from the irritating and inevitable.
Try to actually be what you want to be instead of moaning over the fact that you are not what you want to be—and see what will happen!

No man ever reached a mountain top without first putting his eyes upon its summit.

There are those who seem to delight in dwelling upon the morbid tendencies of their nature in high of flooding them with an antidote that might clear them away forever.
Happiness in this world comes about largely through the ability to turn one's thoughts away from the unpleasant, discouraging and impossible, and attempting to do to the very limits all of which we seem capable.

And no man knows how capable he really is until he has tapped his resources to their depths.
Tennyson has left us an inspiring little poem on this subject.

"Oh, well for him whose will is strong;
He suffers, but he will not suffer long."

No one ever became discouraged by looking up at the stars!

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

Georgiagraphs

Georgia has 318,000 voters. The 200,000 who will be worth in the market $25,000,000 more than the crops of the past year. Georgia's surface is more than one-fourth covered with growth of pine trees—of various ages.

BITS OF NEW YORK LIFE

BY O. O. MINTYRE

New York, August 1.—The modern

Manhattan modern smokes cigarettes, uses daytime and nightingale, carries a cane and quaffs a cocktail with her flapper daughter and her young cake-eating friends. She meets the rushing years with a frivolous abandon.

Her protagonists will tell you she is merely meeting conditions as they are. That she is a closer chum of her children than the old-fashioned mothers. They tell you all that when she drinks with her offspring she is merely trying to avoid the pitfalls of secret drinking.

When she joins the Bacchanalian revel of the midnight sports clubs she does it for no other reason than that they might otherwise not achieve. New York accepts the modern mother with a rousing cheer.

Perhaps the most anti-quarian, but I have never been able to keep in stride with the spirit of the modern mother. Serving spiked punch instead of lemonade, she meets the modern mother's huzzah. To be maternalized is one of womanhood's greatest assets.

Mother and daughter go to tea together and a stranger cannot tell one from the other on account of their cosmetics and dress. The other night in an adjoining telephone booth of a hotel I heard a young girl ask her mother:

"This was her conversation verbatim: 'Hello, old thing. Don't sit up for me; I'm having a perfectly precious time. We are going on out to the Club Lido. We are all getting giddy and may stop for breakfast at Reubens. Cheerio!' And she hung up."

Here was a daughter of not more than 20—fair haired, beautiful and alive with the vibrancy of youth. I had a vision of the sweet-faced girl in my home town—no! women

Flinch, Bill!

I.

Flinch, Bill!
Flinch, water-willows bending,
Where the shade and sunshine blend—
Softly come and go.
Down where the beech-leaves lie,
Down where sassy bluejays cry,
At a crow.

II.

Flinch, Bill!
Flinch, mosses, closely clinging,
Down where speckled perch are spring—
Up to catch a fly.
Where the water, deep and still
Under the sloping hill,
Makes you sigh.

III.

Flinch, Bill!
Dreamin' as your pole is swaying,
Tangled thoughts gone all a-straying,
And your eye
Lookin' up through half-closed lashes,
Through the forest's tangled tangles,
At the sky.

IV.

Flinch, Bill!
While a trout your bait is stealing,
While you're kinder, sorter feeling,
Glad inside.
While you dream, and smoke and rest,
At your chin sinks on your chest,
Satisfied!

—WILL D. MUSE.

Atlanta, Ga.

Tax to Live, and Tax to Die.

Colonel John E. Fench, the veteran "Richmond Philosopher," says—
"This writer has never owned any land and soon will pass on to the great beyond and have to pay ten times as much for a hole in the ground three by six feet. Don't bog down and sweat it. This is the worst of it. You hit your 'a-comin' and a-goin', and no use kickin' now, and you can't kick later."

She'll Know Better Next Time.

A Greensboro girl reports that she was awfully tanned on her vacation.
—Greensboro Herald-Journal.

A Billville Motto.

Let us all be up and doing—something, before they do us.

Another Protest.

Oh, Mister Hot Sun,
It's time you took a rest
And let the cold wind find us
And whistle at his best!

For, in the burning weather,
We're melting, high and low,
An' wishin' with the children,
For the Old Man of the Snow!

Editor Shoppe Tells It.

(From The Dalton Citizen.)
According to themselves, that they seek to advise most everybody else just how to do, and what to do. Such advice costs nothing, and it ought to be worth at least as much as if costs.

Today's Talk

BY GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE TURN OF THOUGHT.

Most of us find it largely through our ability to turn our thoughts from all which depresses and destroys that we are able to face bravely and take up what comes without complaint.

How often we are caught in a depression—worrying over what has not happened and which rarely does.
We do so much lack buoyancy. We pray for the sunshine when there are only clouds and rainfall. But when the clouds and rainfall are gone that prayed-for sunshine fails to clear our gloom.

The pleasurable soul depends upon the ability of its owner to rise above circumstances, and to will a path far from the irritating and inevitable.
Try to actually be what you want to be instead of moaning over the fact that you are not what you want to be—and see what will happen!

No man ever reached a mountain top without first putting his eyes upon its summit.

There are those who seem to delight in dwelling upon the morbid tendencies of their nature in high of flooding them with an antidote that might clear them away forever.
Happiness in this world comes about largely through the ability to turn one's thoughts away from the unpleasant, discouraging and impossible, and attempting to do to the very limits all of which we seem capable.

And no man knows how capable he really is until he has tapped his resources to their depths.
Tennyson has left us an inspiring little poem on this subject.

"Oh, well for him whose will is strong;
He suffers, but he will not suffer long."

No one ever became discouraged by looking up at the stars!

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

Georgiagraphs

Georgia has 318,000 voters. The 200,000 who will be worth in the market $25,000,000 more than the crops of the past year. Georgia's surface is more than one-fourth covered with growth of pine trees—of various ages.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

Victories of Journalism.

German newspapers are surprised to learn that one of the secret arrangements between their government and the entente allies has been revealed by an American newspaper, "The New York World." The matter consisted in a plan to mortgage German industries and the Germans felt uneasy because they feared the publication of the plans would be interpreted as a breach of faith in other European countries. They did not know that Samuel Spawack, the paper's correspondent in Berlin, had obtained the news from foreign diplomatic sources. What particular arrangements The World has for securing its exclusive news in Europe is not known, but it cannot have escaped students of the foreign situation that The World is far ahead of other papers in publishing important news from over there. Perhaps we'll learn a bit of journalistic adventure and romance when the American correspondent's procedure is disclosed. It may be something along the line of the exploits of the Count de Blowitz, famous correspondent of The London Times during the Franco-Prussian war. The count's paper De Blowitz went to Berlin, but Bismarck kept a cordon of soldiers and secret police around the building where the negotiations were in progress. De Blowitz then resorted to an ingenious and daring maneuver. One of the secretaries of the peace conference was bought over. But as the government kept a strict watch on the movements of the secretaries, the following method was adopted. The count dined each day in the same restaurant as the secretary. Both wore high silk hats, and both hats were the same size. The secretary never acted as if he knew the count, but hung his hat on a rack next to the count's. When leaving the restaurant the secretary took the count's hat. In the bathhouse was concealed a resume of the day's proceedings at the conference. When the peace treaty was signed, the count took the secretary's hat and the treaty with the exception of the introduction, Bismarck had no objection in giving him this, though he was angry that he could not get the hat. He wanted to see the count's hat. He wanted to see the count's hat. He wanted to see the count's hat.

And speaking of my home town, I wonder if the mothers there are still using coffee grinders, pounding the round steak with a hammer, using turkey wing stove dusts, scrubbing the kitchen table and white, keeping the dining room floor so clean, cracking walnuts on a worn old stone in the backyard and having the minister come a month for dinner.

When I see young boys of New York hitting it up for a roadhouse in a stumpy roadster for a dinner where the cover charge alone is $2 I cannot help but think of my 18th birthday party. The guests came at 7 o'clock and by a special concession were permitted to remain until 10. As the party was over, the guests were magic lantern show presenting views of Yosemite valley. Everything has changed since those days—even the pronunciation of Yosemite.

I took the lady who is now my wife home from this party. I had been brushing up on etiquette for 10-cent courses purchased from Dept. H. Joliet, Ill.—and offered her my arm. Tenderly she permitted her finger tips lightly to rest upon it. But as we passed the street lights she secretly withdrew them. People were out on their front porches and she did not want to appear bawdy.

Today the girls of the same age spoon openly in motor cars and on dance floors. . . . At this point Luther was looking over my shoulder, remarking:

"What a magnificent old fossil you've turned out to be!"

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

Prominent Georgians Protest Passage Of Favorably Reported Evolution Bill

Editor Constitution: I notice that the Georgia legislature intends to ban the teaching of the theory of evolution from the state schools.

If such proves to be the case may I ask whether this will not also prevent the teaching of botany, zoology, geology, much of astronomy and of many other sciences, since all these sciences have their foundation in the theory of evolution, as applied both to the organic and inorganic worlds. If evolution is not to be taught all our modern text books on these subjects will have to be rewritten back to the state they were in 200 years ago. It would mean simply that further investigation into the development of man is prohibited; we are to close our minds on this subject forever. The study of the most important branch of natural science would be considered irreligious in Georgia.

What I fear is that gradually sensible people will send their children away from Georgia to be educated. Would such a thing be desirable?

Old to say that enforcement of such an act would oblige the schools of Georgia to teach a form of evolution that no scientist would admit to be possible at all. Man was "created" about 6,000 years ago. As all were drowned in the flood about 2,000 years ago, the only branch of evolution that 4,000 years in which all the different races of men have developed from one original Hebrew pair. The children of the Hebrews must be taught that the extraordinary differences, the Chinese, the Japanese, the Saxons, the Turks, American Indians, the Eskimos, the Negroes, and innumerable other races in the inaccessible and remote parts of the world, were all descended—how otherwise than by evolution—from a single pair of Hebrews in about 4,000 years. This is totally impossible. It would be out-evolutionizing the evolutionist. I might very properly object to having my children teach the relationship to the Negro asserted by legislative enactment in the state of Georgia.

It seems to me that this matter should not be decided without a reference to the specialists in education, the teachers and professors in our schools, otherwise much damage may be done to the welfare of Georgia by hasty legislation.

C. F. VON HERRMANN.
Atlanta, Ga., July 31, 1924.

SAYS MEASURE WOULD PUT STATE BACK TWENTY YEARS.
Editor Constitution: I notice in this morning's Constitution that Mr. Pope, of Walker county, has introduced a bill in the house to withdraw all state money from schools where the Darwin theory of evolution is taught.

While I have the highest regard for the motives which I have no doubt inspired Mr. Pope I feel sure that he has been misinformed.

What is generally known as Darwin's theory of evolution was set forth a great many years ago and like all other discoveries takes its name from the discoverer. But modern scientists while they go on these lines of investigation have found that Professor Darwin made a great many mistakes as anyone would in a new line of investigation. However, the general science is still called the Darwin theory of evolution.

All modern science is founded on the theory of evolution, all the books in the high schools and colleges teach it. If Mr. Pope's bill should pass it will be necessary to exclude every text book now recognized in physics, botany, biology and zoology.

While these books may not necessarily teach it directly at the same time it is often necessary for the teacher to explain while instructing and you would have the trustees meeting every week for the purpose of firing their teachers in order to keep from losing this state money.

I am sure that Mr. Pope is unduly alarmed, as a very fruitful source of discussion comes from the fact that in teaching biology in the schools it becomes necessary for the teacher to explain the Darwin theory of evolution, but in practically all cases the teacher is correct, nor does the teacher express them as his or her views, and in view of the fact that a great many pupils don't like the teacher, the teacher is sure to tell the parents that the teacher does believe personally in these doctrines.

Ninety-nine per cent of the teachers in this state are professing Christians and they do not claim to be a fact that man descended from an ape, and I would like to make Mr. Pope a wager that if he will wire the teachers in this state and ask them to sign a statement that man descended from an ape that the teacher will wire him that he or she does not claim that it is a fact.

One can not carry on any research in the animal kingdom without it. Agriculturists carry on the improvement of plants and live stock and follow the life history of the insects. I am in sympathy with Mr. Pope in his views on this subject, but it will create a wrangle in this state that will set the teaching profession against the theory of evolution. I do not even know what it is.

LINDER CRITICIZES BIENNIAL SESSIONS

In a communication addressed to The Constitution, Representative Linder, of Jeff Davis county, has set forth the reasons why he is opposed to biennial sessions of the general assembly.

Mr. Linder charges the biennial session bill is backed by "great corporate interests and political autocrats who fear the resentment of the people at the ballot box, or through their direct representative." The real motive behind the bill, he charges, is "to destroy our constitution as it at present exists." He states it would be possible, under biennial sessions, for the cities of the state to qualify large numbers of poll-tax voters, between the time the legislature passed a constitutional amendment bill, and the time it came before the people for ratification.

Concluding, Mr. Linder states that what is needed for Georgia is not less representation, but better representation.

His letter in full follows: Editor of The Constitution: Believing the people of Georgia are entitled to know both sides of the question, and believing that many people are under the impression as to the effect of biennial sessions of the legislature, I ask that you print the following letter.

The greatest bulwark of popular government is the right of the people to elect their representatives.

How to build up your Weight

To be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1876, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

S.S.S. The World's Best Blood Medicine

Purifies the Blood and makes the Cheeks Rosy
Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

Why They're Using
Joint-Ease For Burning Feet

Just because it is now known that painful, sore, aching, swollen feet are caused by the many joints in the foot and Joint-Ease soaks right in and gets to the seat of the trouble—the cartilage and ligaments of the joints. And to think that for generations we have been powdering and soaking our feet, thinking that was the only skin-deep—old-fashioned idea. Well, better late than never—just stop the powdering and medical bathing and other foolishness for three days and just rub on Joint-Ease. And remember when Joint-Ease goes in foot agony gets out—quick—60 cents a tube—all druggists, Jacobs' Pharmacy sells lots of Joint-Ease.—(adv.)

This is number three in a series of articles on the Art of Table Setting.

The Formal Dinner

The Silver Service for a Formal Dinner is similar to that of the Formal Luncheon announced yesterday. Use a heavy, plain linen tablecloth. To the right of the dinner plate place the table knife, then the fish knife, soup spoon, oyster fork crossed over spoon. To the left of the plate place the table fork and fish fork. Additional silver for salad, game, dessert or coffee is brought in with the courses as they are served and is not placed on the table in advance. The bread stick or roll is laid between the folds of a large linen napkin placed to the extreme left of the plate. Serve the individual portions from the pantry or kitchen. Remove dishes and silver from one course before the next course is served. Before serving the dessert the table is cleared entirely except the bonbons, which are left in place. The dessert and demitasse coffee may be brought in, together, as the coffee may be served in the drawing room where it is poured and served informally. On the dining table a Sterling Silver basket filled with lovely flowers makes a very appropriate centerpiece. Silver candlesticks holding soft shaded candles may also be used.

Tomorrow—The Wedding Breakfast

Our stock of Sterling Silver is the finest and most complete in the south.

Come In and See!
For Thirty-Seven Years Gold and Silversmiths

MAIER & BERKELE, Inc.

Mrs. T. T. Stevens and Mrs. Lott Warren, Jr., Accept Places as Judges in Constitution Beauty Tourney

They all seek "Miss Atlanta's" crown. Left to right: Miss Sarah Louise Greene, Camp McElroy; Miss Irene Callaway, 702 Atlanta National Bank building (head picture); Miss Lucile Beagle, 293 West Peachtree street (sitting); Miss Sarah Lou Ranson, Hapeville; Miss Willene Carlisle, 119 Columbia avenue; Miss Mary Moody, 911 Peachtree street. Photos of Misses Ranson and Moody by Wesley Hirschberg.

CHARGE ROBBERS USED STOLEN CAR

Constitution Bureau, Masonic Temple Annex, Phone 1069.

Rome, Ga., August 1.—(Special.)—

The "traveling robbers" who burglarized the store of W. H. Vickery on the Summerville Pike early Thursday morning were riding in an automobile that was stolen in Life, Ala., according to information received by Sheriff R. E. Wilson, of Floyd county. There were three boys in the car, the report indicates, and a number of people declare that they answer the descriptions sent Sheriff Wilson.

McCalla Gets Promotion.

Rome, Ga., August 1.—(Special.)—L. F. McCalla, who has been with the Southern Railway company for many years, has been appointed traffic inspector for the Rome traffic division of the road, according to an announcement made by W. H. Bennett, division freight agent.

League Union To Meet.

Rome, Ga., August 1.—(Special.)—The Epworth League union, composed of leagues from Polk, Bartow and Floyd counties, will hold its regular quarterly meeting Sunday afternoon at the Cartersville Methodist church, at Rockmart, of Rockmart, president of the organization, will have charge of the meeting. The program will consist of special music numbers and an address by Rev. Frank Dim, of Rockmart.

CAPITOL GOSSIP

Rush to Buy Tags.

There was a rush to the office of Secretary of State S. Guyt McLeod Friday to take advantage of the provision in the Georgia law which allows motorists to buy tags for the current year at half price on and after August 1.

Hearing Is Postponed.

It was announced Friday at the office of Attorney General George M. Napier that hearing on an injunction sought by citizens of Ossawau and Wasaw islands to restrain Georgia authorities from enforcing tick eradication measures had been postponed until August 17. The hearing is scheduled before Judge W. M. McLeod in Savannah. The postponement was on account of illness of Dr. Peter F. Balisen, state veterinarian.

Urge Payne's Appointment.

Urging the appointment of Boomer Payne, of Elberton, as solicitor of the city court at that place, a delegation of Elbert county citizens called on Governor Walker Friday and presented indorsements from leading citizens and organizations of the county.

No Cases of Anthrax.

Every possible precaution is being taken to bar anthrax from Georgia, according to Dr. J. H. Coffman, assistant state veterinarian, on Friday, who is in charge of the office during the absence of State Veterinarian Peter F. Balisen, who is ill. At present there is not a single case of this disease in Georgia, it is stated.

EDWARDS AND MOORE IN CONGRESSIONAL RACE

Savannah, Ga., August 1.—The congressional fight in the first district will be between Charles G. Edwards, of Savannah, former congressman, and R. Lee Moore, of Statesboro, present congressman. Entries closed at noon today.

Atlanta Banks Gratified Over School Loan Solution

The five Atlanta Clearing House association banks joined in a statement to the public Friday to express their pleasure in being able to lend the city the money to keep public schools open throughout the year, declaring that they have endeavored to respond to every call the city has made upon them.

The loan of $350,000 was approved by the association Thursday after legal obstacles had been overcome through Mayor Walter Sims' action in obtaining guarantee of nearly 50 prominent Atlanta citizens that the money would be repaid next year.

In their statement Friday, the clearing house banks declared that they had been especially desirous to help solve the difficult problems that faced the city in the matter of financing the schools and that they were anxious to serve the city in this loan as well as in all other matters.

Statement of Banks.

The undersigned banks, comprising the entire membership of the Atlanta Clearing House association, have endeavored to respond to every call that the city of Atlanta has made upon them. They have this year been especially sympathetic in their feelings towards the school situation and have desired in the interests of the schools to solve the difficult problems that have faced the city in the matter of financing the schools.

"In the matter of the loan of $350,000 asked of the banks they have been anxious as in all other matters to serve the city. The action of certain citizens of Atlanta in agreeing to aid the city in the matter of this school loan has given the banks the opportunity desired to join with these citizens and Atlanta in keeping open the public schools throughout this year.

"It has been recognized by all of us that the schools must not close and it is with genuine satisfaction that a solution of the problem has been found which enables the banks to pay the school teachers their salaries and to keep the schools in operation. The loan desired will be made because the banks, appreciating their opportunity for service and realizing the responsibility that that opportunity entails, are glad to render a service which this opportunity and responsibility offer.

*Atlanta Lowry National bank, Fourth National bank, Citizens and Southern bank, Fulton National bank, Atlanta Trust company."

SPILLER SEEKS AUTHOR OF DROWNING STORY

A reward of $50 was offered Friday by R. J. Spiller, proprietor of Spiller's pool on Ponce de Leon avenue, for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the rumor that a dead man had been found in its waters last week.

Mr. Spiller branded the report as false and declared that no efforts or expense would be spared in locating the authors. He has asked aid of police in his search.

Atlanta Banks Gratified Over School Loan Solution

The five Atlanta Clearing House association banks joined in a statement to the public Friday to express their pleasure in being able to lend the city the money to keep public schools open throughout the year, declaring that they have endeavored to respond to every call the city has made upon them.

The loan of $350,000 was approved by the association Thursday after legal obstacles had been overcome through Mayor Walter Sims' action in obtaining guarantee of nearly 50 prominent Atlanta citizens that the money would be repaid next year.

In their statement Friday, the clearing house banks declared that they had been especially desirous to help solve the difficult problems that faced the city in the matter of financing the schools and that they were anxious to serve the city in this loan as well as in all other matters.

Statement of Banks.

The undersigned banks, comprising the entire membership of the Atlanta Clearing House association, have endeavored to respond to every call that the city of Atlanta has made upon them. They have this year been especially sympathetic in their feelings towards the school situation and have desired in the interests of the schools to solve the difficult problems that have faced the city in the matter of financing the schools.

"In the matter of the loan of $350,000 asked of the banks they have been anxious as in all other matters to serve the city. The action of certain citizens of Atlanta in agreeing to aid the city in the matter of this school loan has given the banks the opportunity desired to join with these citizens and Atlanta in keeping open the public schools throughout this year.

"It has been recognized by all of us that the schools must not close and it is with genuine satisfaction that a solution of the problem has been found which enables the banks to pay the school teachers their salaries and to keep the schools in operation. The loan desired will be made because the banks, appreciating their opportunity for service and realizing the responsibility that that opportunity entails, are glad to render a service which this opportunity and responsibility offer.

*Atlanta Lowry National bank, Fourth National bank, Citizens and Southern bank, Fulton National bank, Atlanta Trust company."

SPILLER SEEKS AUTHOR OF DROWNING STORY

A reward of $50 was offered Friday by R. J. Spiller, proprietor of Spiller's pool on Ponce de Leon avenue, for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the rumor that a dead man had been found in its waters last week.

Mr. Spiller branded the report as false and declared that no efforts or expense would be spared in locating the authors. He has asked aid of police in his search.

Dry Force Raids Home of Relative Of Justice Taft

New York, August 1.—Prohibition agents have raided the home of a niece of Chief Justice Taft of the United States supreme court and obtained sixty cases of a beverage which they briefly described as liquor.

The raid was on the home of Hugo Gilbert de Fritsch, at 142 East Fifty-fourth street, in the fashionable just-off-Fifth-avenue district. Mr. and Mrs. de Fritsch are at their summer home on Long Island. Chief Justice Taft is Mrs. de Fritsch's uncle.

A butler was in charge of the house when the agents arrived. He assured them that they must have the wrong number and pointed out that the agents were entering a private house. Regardless of protests the raid was carried out. Prohibition officials estimated the value of the seized liquor at $7,500.

A search warrant was obtained when, from a distance of a whole block, an agent saw what he thought to be a case of liquor being carried into the house.

U. S. GLOBE FLIERS AGAIN DELAY HOP

Kirkwall, Scotland, August 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The American army round-the-world fliers were unable to hop off today for Høfn Hornafjör, Iceland, because patrolers reported a heavy fog off Iceland.

Flying prospects were poor and the weather forecast indicated a cloudy sky without rain tomorrow.

Great masses of ice reported at Angmagssalik and along most of the east coast of Greenland, it is expected may make the landing at Angmagssalik problematical.

Bunder Abbas, Persia, August 1.—Major Zandi, the Argentine aviator, arrived here today on his round-the-world flight. He left Basra at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, having reached Basra four hours previously.

Special Summer Rates, $9.00 per day up, Grove Park Inn, Asheville. Finest Resort Hotel in the World.—(adv.)

Today's Big Values At—

Parks-Chambers-Hardwick Co.

Special Clean-up Of Shirts . . . $1.95

Big Lot Of Shirts 1/2 Price

All Pajamas, All Underwear, All Straw Hats. 1/3 off

All 3-Piece Spring And Summer Suits . . . $24.85 And $38.85

All Lightweight Tropical Worsteds—Mohairs—Linen, Etc., 1/4 Off—

STORE OPEN UNTIL SIX P. M.

Parks-Chambers-Hardwick Co.

Figure It Out for Yourself

THE one way to have money is to save. A small initial deposit in the Citizens and Southern Savings Department, followed by other small deposits at regular intervals, will very quickly amount to enough to make it very well worth while.

And don't forget that when your money is in the Savings Department of this bank that it draws compound interest. Deposits made on or before Wednesday, August 6th, will draw interest from August 1st.

In the window of A. G. Spalding & Bros., at 74 North Broad, is a magnificent reproduction of the painting, "Vacation Days." We are sending to every Atlanta home a smaller copy of this picture, and hope that you will enjoy it.

The Citizens & Southern Bank

Atlanta—Marietta at Broad
Candler Bldg. Mitchell at Forsyth Peachtree at Tenth Savannah Macon Augusta

"No account too large—none too small"

Watch this paper and the nearest Oakland showroom for full details of a series of astonishing demonstrations of motor car value. What will they be?

AMUSEMENTS

Lyric Theater—All week, the Lyric Players in "Sweet Seventeen."

Forsyth Theater—All week, Jimmie Hodges in "45 Minutes From Broadway."

Leah's Grand Theater—All week, vaudeville and "The Fools Awakening."

Howard Theater—All week, Tarlington's "Monsieur Beaucaire," and other features.

Metropolitan Theater—All week, Corinne Griffith in "Single Wives."

Rialto Theater—All week, Buck Jones in "Hell's Hole."

Tudor Theater—"The Call of the Canyon."

Alamo No. 2—Neal Hart in "Tucker Top Hat."

Alpha Theater—Fifth episode "The Way of a Man."

"Sweet Seventeen."

(At the Lyric.)

"Sweet Seventeen," merry comedy of lovely youth, closes its successful week's engagement at the Lyric theater with performances this afternoon and tonight. Miss Edith King is the surprising flapper described in the title.

She is to be "Captain Kidd, Jr.," in Rida Johnson Young's dramatic farce of the name which opens with ladies' bargain performance next Monday night.

Hodges Musical Comedy.

(At the Forsyth.)

Forsyth fans—that is, members of the laughing club—have their last chances today to see and hear Jimmie Hodges in his funniest and best role—that of "Kid" Burns in "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," brilliant musical comedy that has played to record crowds all this week.

Miss Bonnie TeBeau also is exceptionally pleasing in her part as the winsome but desiring maid, and her songs are catching and pleasing.

"Monsieur Beaucaire."

(At the Howard.)

Rudolph Valentino in the best picture he ever made, "Monsieur Beaucaire," at the Howard all this week, will be seen the last times today. From every standpoint Rudolph Valentino does the best work he has ever done in this picture, which is the first one he has made in two years. The overture is his from the late New York success, "Lollipop," Howard Symphon orchestra, Alex Kesse conducting.

"Hell's Hole."

(At the Rialto.)

Charles Jones' thrilling new feature "Hell's Hole," will be shown today and tonight for the last time at the Rialto theater. If you haven't seen this action story of western life and sweet romance, don't fail to go today. In addition to Jones there appear Ruth Clifford, leading lady; Maurice Flynn, Kathie Key, Hardy Kirkland and Eugene Pallette.

Paramount Theater.

(For Colored Only.)

It will be recalled that as a re-

LYRIC THEATRE PLAYERS

MATINEE TODAY AT 2:30

TONIGHT AT 8:20

"SWEET SEVENTEEN"

NEXT WEEK

"CAPT. KIDD, JR."

FORSYTH

JIMMIE HODGES

"HIMSELF"

As "KID" BURNS in GEO. M. COHAN'S greatest Musical Comedy

"45 MINUTES FROM BROADWAY"

MATINEE TODAY 2:30

TONIGHT AT 7:30 & 9:15

PRICES 27c, 36c, 60c

NEXT WEEK

"Sally Lou"

HOWARD

Last Times Today

RUDOLPH VALENTINO

In

"MONSIEUR BEUCAIRE"

Next Week

"The Arab"

RIALTO

COOLEST SPOT IN TOWN

LAST DAY EXHIBIT

"HELL'S HOLE"

NEXT WEEK

CHANGING HUSBANDS

AMUSEMENT FOR COLORED

THE PARAMOUNT

AUBURN AVE.

THE HOME OF SCREEN CLASSICS

Last Times Today

GLORIA SWANSON in

"A SOCIETY SCANDAL"

Rich Richard Says:

SECOND thoughts are best. And the most valuable second thought of the day is to turn to The Constitution's Classified Ads

before you buy.

Read them today!

(Copyright, 1934, by Basil L. Smith)

of a nation-wide idea contest conducted by Cecil B. DeMille, thirty thousand answers were received. The winning answer, "Ten Commandments," was made into a sensational successful motion picture.

An outstanding cry was, "Give us more stories of business, of industry." Said the husbands, "We want to see men on the screen like those we know." Said the wives, "We want to see movies but it's hard to get our husbands to stir out in the evening. They say they don't like just love stories. Give them something of their own stuff, and our job will be easy."

Hence the new DeMille picture "Triumph," which carries one from modern factories to gilded cafes, from overalls to Paris gowns and from polo to a park bench in Madison Square, New York, a picture for men as well as women.

New Swanson Picture.

What is believed to be a record has been set by Allan Dwan in the production of Gloria Swanson's newest Paramount starring picture, "A Society Scandal," at the Paramount theater today. The picture, an adaptation of the stage play, "The Laughing Lady," in which Ethel Barrymore scored such a tremendous success, was produced in its entirety in New York city and vicinity.

If you've never been to New York the picture will serve as a first-hand experience—that of an entertaining society love drama—and a travelogue novelty.

POLICE MOBILIZE AGAINST KLAN MOB

Continued from First Page.

Lancaster, Tuesday night and Wednesday morning.

The arrests in Shreveport were made after the local police and state patrolmen had found weapons in automobiles entering the inclosure where the Klan meeting was being held. Those arrested were Albert C. Olson, of Worcester, and Thomas Sorenson, of Lancaster. Police say they found a rubber hose filled with zinc filings and covered with tape in Olson's machine, and two small clubs in Sorenson's car.

Find Many Weapons.

The police also said they took from the other cars eleven clubs, one lead pipe and five loaded revolvers. The occupants of the cars were told that they could not enter the Klan inclosure unless they left the weapons in police custody.

The three arrests, which came as an aftermath of the Lancaster riot, was the culmination of the investigation by state police, who have been endeavoring to get evidence regarding the identity of those who participated actively in the disorders.

Charles Schumaker, of Lancaster, one of those arrested, was charged with disturbing the peace. Police said the meeting in Lancaster where klansmen were besieged for nine hours by a hostile mob was held on his property. During the demonstrations there three men were wounded.

Admits Firing Gun.

Schumaker, police say, admitted he had fired a gun into the air to frighten the crowd, which he feared would destroy his property. The police said they were convinced after their investigation that the gun which Schumaker used was not the weapon that inflicted the wounds on the three injured.

Two Leominster men were arrested in that city and also charged with disturbing the peace. The police say they participated in the stoning of the klansmen.

PATROL IS MOBILIZED FOR INSTANT SERVICE.

Boston, August 1.—Mobilization of the state patrol for instantaneous riot service and an order for the disarming of persons bearing weapons at assemblies comprised two steps taken by officials today to end hostilities between Ku Klux Klan members and others. These steps were taken in consequence of clashes at Lancaster and Haverhill.

Every member of the police patrol has been ordered to duty, vacations have been cut short and days off postponed. Arrangements have been completed so that 50 or more motorcycle officers may be mobilized in case of emergency at any point in the state within an hour.

Commissioner Foote, of the department of public safety, announced orders today for the disarming of all persons, including klansmen and their opponents, at meetings held in the future.

LOSS OF $75,000 YEARLY IS SEEN IN SALARY BILL

Continued from First Page.

go to county officials for collection of county taxes.

State Would Get Fees.

Mr. Branan told the committee that under the present bill the fees would either be kept by the state or paid to the county officials, who also would be drawing salaries from Fulton. He contends that the county has a clear right to the money paid by the state for collection of state taxes, adding that he has heard an effort will be made to so amend the anti-fee bill in the senate as to allow county officials to continue taking commissions from the state.

Mr. Branan stated that a substitute measure has been drawn up, giving all these commissions to the county, and authorizing the legislature, instead of the county board, to fix salaries to be paid Fulton county officials.

He stated that a meeting of the subcommittee of the county executive committee, and heads of various civic organizations interested in the fight on the fee system, would be held at 11 o'clock Monday, at which a program will be outlined to be presented at a session of the senate committee, in charge of this matter.

The meeting probably will be held at the capitol at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. If that date is not convenient to the senators the chairman is expected to fix a hearing for Tuesday.

Branan Reads Statement.

Mr. Branan read a statement to the subcommittee at the meeting Friday, in which he outlined his views on the salary measure. In part he said:

"The bill which passed the house, as I understand it, allows the state to retain the fees and commissions heretofore paid the officials of Fulton county, amounting to something like $60,000 to $75,000 per year, or over a quarter of a million dollars for the next four years. This money belongs to the taxpayers of Fulton county and not to the state, and should be retained by Fulton county to benefit the people of Fulton county."

"I understand from good authority that an amendment will try to be attached to this bill in the senate to change it so as to allow the county officials of Fulton county to retain their commissions amounting to $60,000 to $75,000 per year, heretofore paid them by the state for collecting state and special taxes, and in addition to this be paid a salary by the taxpayers of Fulton county."

"I do not believe the people who understand the situation will want the county commissioners to name the salaries for state and county officials of Fulton county. Anybody who is familiar with the concerted power and influence of the county officials of Fulton county, or any other county, will readily understand that they can come very near electing the county commissioners they want—thereby the county commissioners will become their servants and not the servants of the people. Therefore the legislature should name the salaries for state and county officials and keep it out of politics."

Resolutions Passed.

The resolutions adopted by the subcommittee follow:

Resolved: that we, the subcommittee of the democratic executive committee of Fulton county, representing the 15,000 voters who cast their ballots for the salary system, request Representative Smith and Senator Smith to withhold any bill in the house or senate on the salary system question that does not allow the county of Fulton to retain the fees, commissions and percentages heretofore paid county officials by the state of Georgia.

Resolved further: that the representatives are hereby requested to notify the chairman of this subcommittee of the meeting of the committee on this question, and if possible have some on Monday or Tuesday, August 4 or 5.

This resolution was passed by the subcommittee on Friday, August 1, at the state capitol.

that does not allow the county of Fulton to retain the fees, commissions and percentages heretofore paid county officials by the state of Georgia.

Resolved further: that the representatives are hereby requested to notify the chairman of this subcommittee of the meeting of the committee on this question, and if possible have some on Monday or Tuesday, August 4 or 5.

This resolution was passed by the subcommittee on Friday, August 1, at the state capitol.

CHARLES I. BRANAN, JAMES W. BADDIX, SAM L. ADAMS, P. B. HOPKINS, ALBERT HOWELL.

Sent to Senator Smith. Resolved: that we, the subcommittee of the democratic executive committee of Fulton county, and its representatives of 15,000 voters who cast their ballots for the salary system, on March 19, 1934, do hereby request Hon. Ernest M. Smith, senator from the 25th senatorial district, to hold any bill that is now pending in the senate on the salary system question, or in the committee room, and to give this democratic executive committee an opportunity to appear before the committee for the purpose of knowing the contents of such bill.

Resolved further: that we respectfully request the senator to protect the people from any bill passed that does not allow Fulton county to retain all fees and commissions heretofore paid county officials by the state of Georgia.

Resolved further: that we respectfully request the senator to notify the chairman of this subcommittee of the Fulton county democratic executive committee if it is possible to have a hearing Monday, August 4, in the afternoon, on the salary system bill, which is now pending in the senate. This resolution was passed by the subcommittee on Friday, August 1, at the state capitol.

CHARLES I. BRANAN, JAMES W. BADDIX, SAM L. ADAMS, P. B. HOPKINS, ALBERT HOWELL.

Noted Editor Dies.

Newport News, Va., August 1.—Hamilton Busby, 84, nationally known editor, author and publisher, died today at the National Soldiers' home at Hampton, Va.

"BEGGAR SITUATION" IN CITY ANALYZED

"There Stands Before You the Beggar—What Will You Do With Him?" is the title of a booklet issued and distributed by the Atlanta Community Chest. It analyzes the "beggar situation" in Atlanta, and suggests a way of remedying it.

"Instinct moves you to give into the beggar's hand. That does not remove the problem. Beggars will stay on our streets as long as public giving keeps them there." The booklet suggests that, instead of yielding to instinct, the people of Atlanta be guided by reason. "What to do with the beggar? Send him to the care you have provided within the Community Chest."

GO TO WRIGHTS-VILLE BEACH, N. C.

$15 round trip, August 2nd, via "EABOARD." Reduced rate at Oceanic Hotel, including free bath, flag fishing and boating. Fake Pullman and hotel reservations now. Walnut 5018-5019.—(adv.)

We Repeat!!

ONLY HUDSON AND ESSEX

Have The Coach

That is the reason we sold and delivered

67 NEW HUDSON AND ESSEX AUTOMOBILES

IN ATLANTA DURING JULY

Following the sale of

65 NEW HUDSON AND ESSEX AUTOMOBILES

IN ATLANTA DURING JUNE

These are the people who bought them in July:

Purchaser Address

Mr. A. T. Butler, 245 Washington St.
Mr. W. H. Allen, 23 East Georgia Ave.
Mr. Howard Kingsmore, Howard Theater
Mr. T. R. Rusch, Ansley Hotel
Mrs. J. L. Norton, 493 Cherokee Ave.
Mr. P. C. Brockman, 288 Decatur St.
Mr. Stewart Harris, 1013 Atl. Tr. Co. Bldg.
Dr. R. R. Byrne, 627 Ponce de Leon Ave.
Mr. W. H. Gibbs, Western Electric Co.
Mr. Joe S. Raine, Jr., Tr. Co. of Ga. Bldg.
Mr. M. A. Robinson, 117 Lucile Ave.
Mr. Andrew Hester, 34 East 9th St.
Mr. Walter C. Taylor, 75 East 11th St.
Mr. J. J. Battle, 512 Atl. Nat. Bk. Bldg.
Mr. R. F. Tidwell, Western Electric Co.
Mr. J. O. DuPree, 105 Marietta St.
Mrs. L. B. George, 265 S. Moreland Ave.
Mrs. N. S. Jones, R. F. D. No. 4
Mr. J. W. Leach, Tr. Co. of Ga. Bldg.
Mr. E. R. Wheeler, College Park, Ga.
Mr. Jim Shephard, 71 Park Circle
Mrs. D. Letton, 198 N. Moreland Ave.
Dr. S. M. Lewis, 125 1/2 Auburn Ave.

Purchaser Address

Mr. W. P. Pierce, Fire Department.
Mr. F. F. Talley, 1606 Cit. & Sou. Bk. Bldg.
Sou. E. Underwriters Assoc., Tr. Co. of Ga. Bldg.
Miss E. Dunwoody, 111 Oxford Road
Mr. R. E. Blanchard, 108 Oxford Road
Mr. O. O. Broughton, Thomasville, Ga.
Mr. B. C. Upshaw, The Kutz Co.
Mr. J. S. Brown, East Atlanta.
Mr. Y. H. Scherfiter, T. K. Kelley Sales Co.
Mr. S. Y. Tupper, Jr., Queen Ins. Co.
Mr. R. J. Walters, R. F. D. No. 2
Mr. J. W. Mashburn, Jr., 84 Loomis Ave.
Mr. W. F. Johnson, The White Co.
Mr. J. F. Thomason, 400 Austell Bldg.
Mr. R. M. Fluker, 1019 Atl. Tr. Co. Bldg.
Mr. R. L. Cliett, 321 East 10th St.
Miss E. O'Brien, 70 Elmira St.
Mr. M. H. Sewell, 168 Greenwich Ave.
Mr. G. N. Philip, 148 S. Gordon St.
Mr. Ralph Smith, Atlanta Journal
Mr. S. W. Bacon, Jr., 125 Cascade Ave.
Dr. E. C. Davis, Davis-Fischer San.

Purchaser Address

Mr. H. C. Metcalf, The Pullman Co.
Mr. William Summers, East Lake
Mr. C. C. Scruggs, Court House
Mr. H. A. Beaman, East Lake
Mr. A. Jacobson, 97 Whitehall St.
Mr. Geo. Legg, 441 Peachtree St.
Mr. H. J. Burke, 329 Ponce de Leon Ave.
Mrs. D. Nettles, 108 Cooper St.
Mr. W. M. Poole, Cascade Road
Mr. W. A. Calloway, 600 Piedmont Ave.
Mr. Joe Regenstein, Sr., 40 Whitehall St.
Mr. Joe Regenstein, Jr., 40 Whitehall St.
Mr. J. E. Kirkland, Hapeville, Ga.
Mrs. I. N. Caiger, 43 Williams Mill Road
Mr. E. P. Wagner, 426 N. Jackson St.
Mr. G. S. Foster, 11 Kennesaw Ave.
Mr. J. G. Stewart, 59 S. Pryor St.
Mr. J. E. Hunnicutt, 145 Peachtree St.
Mr. W. M. Johnson, 40 Cleburne Ave.
Miss M. Yates, 338 East North Ave.
Mr. Paul Sewell, Western Electric Co.
Mr. C. E. Faust, Piedmont Road

In addition to these sales we sold and delivered 48 used cars in June and 71 used cars in July.

WHY BUY AN OPEN CAR?

For the first time in history closed car comforts can be had at EXACTLY open car cost.

Full Size Balloon Tires now standard equipment on All Hudson and Essex Cars.

HUDSON AND ESSEX ARE OF ONE QUALITY

J. W. GOLDSMITH, JR.-GRANT CO.

229 PEACHTREE ST.

Distributors

IVY 1115

News of Society and Woman's Work

Miss Clementine Wooten To Wed Wm. F. Talley on August 15

The wedding of Miss Clementine Wooten and William F. Talley will take place on Friday evening, August 15, at 8 o'clock, at Georgia Avenue Presbyterian church.

Miss Rosalie Wooten will act as her sister's maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Myrtle Morgan, of Inclesville, Miss Victoria Miller, cousin of the bride, of Westminster, S. C., and Miss Kathleen Talley, sister of the groom, of Decatur.

Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Strickland Are Hostesses at Dahlonega, Ga.

Mrs. John Hornady and Miss Ernestine Hornady are spending the week with Mrs. Murray Howard, at her summer home in Dahlonega, Ga., where Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Strickland are hostesses to their many friends in and around Atlanta during the summer months.

Fair-Weather Wives

BY MILDRED BARBOUR

A Second Victory.

Mrs. Boice-Nevis stood in the doorway of Marjorie's room, her startled eyes taking in the details of freshly-packed trunks, yawning hand-luggage, carelessly-tossed garments on couch and chair. But her face was a mask, and she said, as politely as to a departing guest:

"You are leaving us?"

Marjorie, standing defiantly beside the last trunk, nodded.

"Please go, Marjorie," her mother dismissed the maid briefly and came to sit gingerly on the edge of the chair beside a swirl of chiffon garments.

"Now," the smooth pretty voice became cold and crisp, "suppose we have it out. You are going to get into this madness?"

"If by madness you mean, as I am going to join Reed in the mountains—yes!"

Mrs. Boice-Nevis started violently. A quick look of suspicion came into her shallow eyes.

"That's a subterfuge! What you're really meaning to do is to get away and carry out your threat to not accept the financial settlement Holister offers you."

Marjorie pushed back her hair with a weary gesture.

"Mother, I told you this afternoon in Mrs. Byrne's presence that I was going to Reed. Surely you recall that?"

Mrs. Boice-Nevis looked at her searchingly.

"No, I don't recall that," she admitted. "I was so upset by your refusal to accept the generous terms that Holister offered."

She considered for a moment.

"It is unfortunate in a way that I misunderstood. I wired your sisters and Dan to come on."

Marjorie smiled bitterly.

"A family council to restrain the incorrigible one," she murmured.

"Precisely," agreed her mother.

"The ridiculously idealistic one," she regarded her daughter curiously.

"Whatever course of reasoning has brought you to the amazing conclusion that you must go to Reed Holister, when, for two years, you have positively refused even to see him?"

Marjorie made an impatient gesture.

"Mother, it isn't reasoning. It's just instinct. It's as natural as—"

"Wouldn't any woman's first impulse be to go to someone who was ill and suffering and alone, especially if she owed that someone a very great debt?"

"She had refused to live with—"

"She declared her mother grudgingly, and one whom she was not sure wanted her. See here, Holister offered you your freedom, you have no assurance that he cares to remain married to you. Since you first separated two years ago, he has made no effort to get you back. How do you know that you have not been superseded in his affections? How do you know that some other young person is not planning to share his loneliness?"

"This was an angle Marjorie had not considered, but after a moment she said slowly:

"If this is the case—and it will be possible to find that out very quickly—I shall be free of course to go my own way. But I shall have my duty. It will mean something to me to know that I wasn't a quitter under fire."

"Stuffy heroism!" sniffed Mrs. Boice-Nevis. "You talk like a medical student. Look at the situation squarely. If you accept Holister's offer, you have your freedom to marry your precious Tom Grosvenor and a settlement that will make you—and me—wealthy for life. If you go dashing off to Reed on this mad impulse, you may spoil some plan of his, rouse the unreasoning crankiness of an invalid, and get yourself—and us—out of without a farthing. I cannot help but see, of course, that if you do this quixotic thing and get away with it, you will come into his whole fortune when he dies instead of only one half, but is it worth the chance?"

"She had the grace to flush under Marjorie's scornful young eyes.

"You must consider such a momentous step from all angles," she ended rather lamely.

"I am considering it from one angle only," replied her daughter crisply—"human decency."

Mrs. Boice-Nevis shrug was indignant of her complete incomprehension.

"Dad, if he were here, would understand," said Marjorie levelly.

"Please don't speak of your father," her mother raised a pretty protesting hand and frowned. "It seems that I was not sufficiently humiliated by his adherence to ridiculous principles, that I must suffer again through his daughter. Well," she rose with a resigned sigh, "I wash my hands of the whole affair. Go to your destruction if you will, foolishly, moth, but see to it that you don't destroy Dan and me in your flame."

She opened the door upon Mathilda, hovering outside with a telegram. It was for Marjorie.

"Have just heard the great news. Am coming at once. Madly happy. Tom."

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Mrs. Shaw Calls Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a God-Send to Sick Women

Cambridge, Me.—"I suffered terribly with pains and soreness in my sides. Each month I had to go to bed, and the doctor told me I simply had to go under an operation before I could get help. I saw your advertisement in the paper, and I told my husband one day to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I took the third dose I felt better. I took it four times a day for two years, getting better all the time, and now for four years I don't have any pains. After taking the medicine for two years I had another child—a lovely baby girl now four years old—the life of our home. I do praise this medicine. It is a Godsend to women who suffer with female troubles and especially for pains at the periods. I surely was very bad once, and I know that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation."—Mrs. JOSE M. SHAW, Route No. 1, Cambridge, Maine.

A country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound reports 98 out of every 100 were benefited by it.

EXTERMINATE MOSQUITOES!

It KILLS 'em and does not stain.

At drugists, grocers and department stores. In bottles with sprayer 35c and 50c.

Made and Guaranteed by Ni-Late Manufacturing Co.

THE TEMPLE GARDEN CO.
78 Nelson St. Atlanta, Ga. Phone MAin 1029

THE CONSTITUTION'S DAILY WOMAN'S MAGAZINE

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Woodbury and Mrs. Christian Give Lovely Bridge Party

Mrs. William Woodbury and Mrs. R. P. Christian were joint hostesses at an afternoon bridge party in honor of Mrs. F. E. Wilson.

A profusion of garden flowers decorated the apartments in which the games were played. Invited to meet Mrs. Wilson were: Mrs. Wiley Jones, Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mrs. W. S. Young, Mrs. J. W. Dobbins, Mrs. J. M. Royall, Mrs. W. A. Leake, Mrs. Jan White, Mrs. Wheat Williams, Mrs. Moore, of Philadelphia; Mrs. J. H. Goss, Jr., Mrs. E. L. Gardner, Mrs. Leon O'Neal, Mrs. J. S. Ely, Mrs. Eugene Hardeman, Mrs. J. S. Elr, Mrs. Charles Weeks, Mrs. Don Donaldson, Mrs. Charles Bascomb, Mrs. Holsey Mallory, Mrs. Ben Cheek, Mrs. Hooper Alexander, Mrs. Walter Miller, Mrs. Lee Skinner, Mrs. Walter Roundtree, Mrs. Walter, Mrs. C. B. Willingham, Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Mrs. Frank Pond, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Frank Harwell, Mrs. W. S. Elkin, Mrs. Mrs. Charles Weeks, Mrs. Rick Clements, Mrs. Robert Ranspach, Mrs. J. P. W. Carver, Mrs. William Allen, Mrs. John Montgomery, Mrs. S. S. Shack, Mrs. Arthur Groschen, Mrs. Polemon Weekes, Mrs. B. B. Lewis, Mrs. W. S. Calloun, Mrs. W. J. McWhorter, Mrs. Fred Cook, Mrs. J. M. Nell, Mrs. F. E. Everhart, Mrs. Addie Everhart, Mrs. Louis Ester, Sr., Miss Hoke, Mrs. John Gleason, Mrs. D. C. Lawhorn, Mrs. Keld, Mrs. Eugene Hicks.

Children's Matinee At Howard To Feature Program

"The Call of the Wild" will be the feature picture at the Howard theater children's matinee this morning. This great dog picture, based on Jack London's novel of the same name, having been obtained by the better films committee to meet the wishes of hundreds.

The picture will begin at 9:30 o'clock, the box office opening half an hour earlier. Admission for children is 10 cents.

A Pathé News Reel and an Aesop Fable will also be shown. Chaperons will be Mrs. G. H. Guy, chairman; Mrs. Luther Holsenback and Mrs. P. B. Rollins.

At the Alpha theater matinee the feature picture will be "White Medicine," starring Allene Ray and Harold Miller. In addition there will be the fifth episode of "The Way of a Man" and a comedy, "Charles Chaplin in 'The Count'."

A program has been arranged, too, by Mrs. Hunter Smith, consisting of a dance, "A Little Flirtation," with Mildred Adams and Thomas McDonville. Chaperons will be Mrs. Klebold, chairman, and Mrs. A. V. Turner.

THE CONSTITUTION'S PATTERNS

4792. This is a type of blouse that will be nice for crepe, wash silk, mohair, and flannel. It is attractive for the new prints and figured silks now in vogue.

The pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 31, 33, 35, 37, 39, 41 inches bust measure. A 35-inch size requires 1 5/8 yard of 40-inch material. For vestee of contrasting material 1 1/4 yard 9 inches wide is required.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Send 12c in silver or stamps for our Up-to-Date Spring and Summer 1924 Book of Fashions.

In ordering patterns write name and address plainly on a sheet of paper. Order by number and inclose price in silver or stamps. Do not mail letter to The Constitution building in Atlanta, but address to Fashion Department, The Constitution, 1188-89 Fulton St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Worth Remembering. Cleaned and oiled if you wish good service. Tea and coffee should be kept in airtight containers to keep their flavor.

A rubber mat under the dishpan in the sink will prevent the pan from scratching the enamel.

Stewed chicken is very attractive served on an oval platter with a rim of tiny baking powder biscuits around the edge.

Removes Obsolete Stalps. So often we rent or buy a home where the bathroom fixtures have been neglected and ugly yellow stalps are on basin and tub. These can be removed by applying muriatic acid. Tie a rag on the end of a stick and apply with this, as the acid must not get on the hands.

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH, N. C.

$15 round trip, Aug. 2nd. Reduced rate at Oceanic Hotel, including free bathing. Fine fishing and boating. Make Pullman and hotel reservations now. Walnut 5015-5019. Seaboard. (adv.)

The marriage of Miss Louise King and Frederick Parks Betterton will take place at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward White on Fourth street.

Miss Sophie Horne will entertain at a bridge-tee this afternoon at her home on West Peachtree street in honor of Mrs. Edmond Eastman and Miss Ellen Giles, of Birmingham, Ala., guests of Miss Laqui Lintinicum and Miss Nancy Lintinicum; Miss Mildred Benning, of Whitman, the guest of Miss Elizabeth Myers, and Miss Mary Berckmans, the guest of Miss Sophie Horne.

Tea-dance at the Atlanta Biltmore.

The marriage of Miss Marie Ferst and Herbert Burgunder will take place at 7:30 o'clock at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

Dinner-dance at Piedmont Driving club.

Dinner-dance at East Lake Country club.

Miss Jeannette Bailey will entertain this afternoon at the Biltmore tea-dance in compliment to Miss Betty Pou.

Richard Hull will entertain at the Piedmont Driving club this evening in honor of Miss Betty Pou, of Columbus, Ga.

The marriage of Miss Alice Bessemer and William Boyd Catow will take place this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Central Congregational church.

Mrs. J. P. Allen will entertain this afternoon at the tea-dance at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

Miss Ida Sadler will be hostess to a group of friends at the Biltmore tea-dance this afternoon.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mrs. George W. Forrester and George, Jr., have returned from Wrightsville Beach, N. C., where they spent several weeks at the Seashore hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Caldwell have returned from a several weeks' visit to points of interest in North Carolina.

Mrs. T. N. Abernathy and Lamar Abernathy are in Fannin county, Georgia, for two weeks. They will be in Blue Ridge for several days during the Baptist assembly.

Mrs. Emmie W. Ballew, of 51 Elmwood drive, is ill at the Georgia Baptist hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Raine and family will motor to Lakemont Saturday to spend the month of August at their cottage.

Colonel W. S. Pharr, after spending several months in London, has returned from England. He is now in Edinburgh and the highlands of Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolling Jones, Jr., and Bolling, III., left yesterday on a motor trip to Hendersonville, N. C., where they will visit Mrs. J. N. Miller, Ned Hodgson, and mother, Mrs. E. K. Hodgson, of Athens, who have opened their summer home in North Carolina.

William D'Arcy and Archie Lee, of St. Louis, are in Atlanta, having motored from Asheville, N. C., where they spent a week at Grove Park inn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Orr, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Beverly DuBoise have returned from Highlands, N. C., where they spent the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel N. Evans, at their summer home.

Miss Lois Hardy has returned to New York after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hardy, at their home in Seneca. She will resume her dramatic work and will again be associated with the Little Theater Guild, having been a member of the Saint Louis company, which played at the Garrick theater last winter and spring.

Mrs. P. E. Furr and three children, Dorothy, Eloise and Billie, motored to Atlanta from Richmond, Va., arriving Monday, and are the guests of Mrs. Furr's sister, Mrs. S. P. Furr, in West End. Mrs. Furr was formerly Miss Pattie Kimball.

Mrs. W. V. Sloan and Miss Lillian Brock have returned to their home in Anderson, S. C., after a visit to Mrs. S. B. Jeter at her home on West Peachtree street. Miss Brock Jeter accompanied Mrs. Sloan to Anderson for a visit of several weeks.

Mrs. William F. Williams and daughter, who were called to Bowling Green, Ky., by the illness of Miss Jeanie Blackburn, found her greatly improved and have a most agreeable stay at the girlhood home of Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Willie Christian, who has been visiting Mrs. Claude Frederick, leaves today for Birmingham for a visit to relatives before returning to her home in Chicago.

Dr. Benjamin O. Holtzendorff returned yesterday from a visit to New York.

Eugene Kelly, of Chicago, is at the Biltmore. Mr. Kelly is a forest ranger and has a wide circle of friends here.

Dr. P. H. Jones is recovering from a recent operation at Base Hospital No. 48.

Mrs. A. H. Matthews, of Mobile, Ala., is visiting her son and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. George S. Matthews, of Brookhaven, Mrs. Matthews is accompanied by her daughter, Lillian.

Mrs. J. J. Chambers returned yesterday from Signal Mountain, where she spent several weeks.

Mrs. Holmes Weaver and Mrs. John Hardwick Hogshead are at Virginia Beach, after having spent a week at Signal Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Williams and daughter, who were called to Bowling Green, Ky., by the illness of Miss Jeanie Blackburn, found her greatly improved and have a most agreeable stay at the girlhood home of Mrs. Williams.

"The skin of a baby" is the envy of all grown-ups, but if it is not kept clean by washing with the finest quality of baby soap and if the child's digestion is not looked after, even the baby's skin will break out in blotches and pimples, and become sallow or gray and greasy-looking exactly like a grown person's.

The baby's teeth must be brushed as soon as he gets them, and before that the mouth and gums washed with

Mrs. Dow and Mrs. Haynes Are Guests of Honor

Complimenting Mrs. James Andrew Dow, of Galveston, Texas, and Mrs. Jane Taylor Haynes, of Trenton, Tenn., two attractive visitors in the city, was the bridge-luncheon at which Mrs. Augustus Turner entertained Friday at the Brookhaven Country club.

The game was played on the beautifully decorated porch of the club. Luncheon was served in the dining room from a table adorned with a silver basket of Dresden shaded summer blossoms.

Handmade handkerchiefs were presented to the guests of honor and the score prizes were attractive French novelties.

The guests included Mesdames Charles Roddy, Douglas Manahan, Harry Turner, Percy Baker, J. V. Pacione, A. F. Irbly, W. H. Rhott, Cliff Key and Miss Bessie Kempton.

Mrs. Bolling Jones Gives Luncheon to Charming Visitors

Mrs. Bolling Jones entertained at an exquisitely appointed luncheon Friday at the Piedmont Driving club, the occasion honoring a trio of charming mid-summer visitors including Mrs. Henry Tanner, of Fort Myers, Fla., the guest of Mrs. Charles Seale; Mrs. Edward T. Donnelly, the guest of Miss Louise Fitten, and Mrs. Lida Lillian Sykes, of Mississippi, the guest of Mrs. John K. Otter.

Luncheon was served on the veranda overlooking the park. The table was overlaid with a lace cloth, and adorning the center was a silver basket holding vari-colored flowers.

Japanese fans, attractively decorated in scenes suggestive of that country, were the favors presented each guest. Monogrammed cards of the hostess were used to mark the place of each guest and covers were laid for thirty-six.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Weckley and son, Gordon, Jr., leave today for a visit to relatives in America, Dawson and Dropwood.

Mrs. Hanyes McFadden and son, Haynes, Jr., have returned from a trip to Atlantic City and other eastern cities and to Bradford McFadden, at Camp Greenbrier, W. Va.

Mrs. John R. Hornady has returned from a visit to Mrs. Murray Howard at her summer home in Dahlonega.

Hamilton Horsey, of New Orleans, and Harrison Jones have returned from a horseback trip through north Georgia and western North Carolina.

Mrs. Cecil Strohm has returned from a visit to relatives in Savannah.

Rev. E. L. Vaughn, who has been ill at the Georgia Baptist hospital for the past two months, is improving. He has moved from the hospital to the home of his niece, Mrs. B. S. Memore, 374 Piedmont avenue.

Dr. Benjamin O. Holtzendorff returned yesterday from a visit to New York.

Eugene Kelly, of Chicago, is at the Biltmore. Mr. Kelly is a forest ranger and has a wide circle of friends here.

Dr. P. H. Jones is recovering from a recent operation at Base Hospital No. 48.

Mrs. A. H. Matthews, of Mobile, Ala., is visiting her son and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. George S. Matthews, of Brookhaven, Mrs. Matthews is accompanied by her daughter, Lillian.

Mrs. J. J. Chambers returned yesterday from Signal Mountain, where she spent several weeks.

Mrs. Holmes Weaver and Mrs. John Hardwick Hogshead are at Virginia Beach, after having spent a week at Signal Mountain.

Mrs. Willie Christian, who has been visiting Mrs. Claude Frederick, leaves today for Birmingham for a visit to relatives before returning to her home in Chicago.

Dr. Benjamin O. Holtzendorff returned yesterday from a visit to New York.

Eugene Kelly, of Chicago, is at the Biltmore. Mr. Kelly is a forest ranger and has a wide circle of friends here.

Dr. P. H. Jones is recovering from a recent operation at Base Hospital No. 48.

Mrs. A. H. Matthews, of Mobile, Ala., is visiting her son and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. George S. Matthews, of Brookhaven, Mrs. Matthews is accompanied by her daughter, Lillian.

Mrs. J. J. Chambers returned yesterday from Signal Mountain, where she spent several weeks.

Mrs. Holmes Weaver and Mrs. John Hardwick Hogshead are at Virginia Beach, after having spent a week at Signal Mountain.

Mrs. Willie Christian, who has been visiting Mrs. Claude Frederick, leaves today for Birmingham for a visit to relatives before returning to her home in Chicago.

Dr. Benjamin O. Holtzendorff returned yesterday from a visit to New York.

Eugene Kelly, of Chicago, is at the Biltmore. Mr. Kelly is a forest ranger and has a wide circle of friends here.

Dr. P. H. Jones is recovering from a recent operation at Base Hospital No. 48.

Mrs. A. H. Matthews, of Mobile, Ala., is visiting her son and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. George S. Matthews, of Brookhaven, Mrs. Matthews is accompanied by her daughter, Lillian.

Mrs. J. J. Chambers returned yesterday from Signal Mountain, where she spent several weeks.

Mrs. Holmes Weaver and Mrs. John Hardwick Hogshead are at Virginia Beach, after having spent a week at Signal Mountain.

Mrs. Watts Honors Mrs. Wilson At Lovely Bridge-Luncheon

Mrs. George Watts was hostess at a delightful bridge-luncheon on Friday at her home on Advance street in honor of Mrs. F. E. Wilson, who will leave at an early date with her husband, Major Wilson, for Griffin, where they will make their future home.

Gladioli, sweet peas, goldenglow, and other garden flowers added a bright note of color to the rooms in which the games were played.

Invited to meet Mrs. Wilson were Mrs. J. S. Ely, Mrs. Robert Hill, Mrs. Eugene Hicks, Mrs. James Figgers, Mrs. William Biggers, Mrs. A. H. O'Neal, Mrs. Charles Carter, Mrs. P. H. Jeter, Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Mrs. Charles Weeks, Mrs. Myrick Clements, Mrs. W. H. S. Hamilton, Miss Harris, Mrs. George Loeber, Mrs. S. R. Christie, Jr., Mrs. Frank McMaster, Mrs. Mack White, Mrs. E. B. Branch, Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mrs. A. H. Wilson, Mrs. Wilam Alden, Mrs. Louis Estes, Sr., Mrs. Guy Webb, Mrs. W. E. Richards, Mrs. John Glenn, Mrs. Hooper Alexander, Mrs. Howard Asker, Mrs. H. G. Hastings and Mrs. J. A. McCarty.

Club Teas Featured By Presence of Prominent Visitors

A delightful group entertained at the Atlanta Woman's club on Friday afternoon at the regular tea were the guests of Mrs. Norman Sharp in honor of Miss Gladys Hanson, who returned Sunday to New York after a visit of several weeks to relatives in Atlanta.

The guests included a group of young girls who took part with Miss Hanson in the Fourth of July pageant, sponsored by the club. They were Miss Florence Ober, Miss Rebecca Bivings, Miss Josephine Turner, Miss Willine Carlyle, Miss Marian Barker, Miss Gwendolyn Barker, Miss Edna May West, Miss Roberta King, Miss Florence Smith, Miss LaFon Dancy, Miss Florence Graham, Miss Frances Turner and Miss Frances Jackson.

Mrs. Sharp received her guests wearing a lovely costume of cream-colored voile trimmed with fillet lace. Her hair was in the style of neapolitan straw with trimming of sweet peas.

A lovely tea was given by Mrs. Walter S. Coleman, at the Atlanta

Lovely Buffet Supper Honors Miss King and Mr. Betterton

Terminating the series of lovely parties given in honor of Miss Louise King, charming bride-elect, the marriage to Frederick Parks Betterton will take place this evening, with the buffet supper at which Mrs. R. H. Comer was hostess Friday evening, entertaining the wedding party and members of the family connections.

The wedding rehearsal took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward White, on East Fourth street, where the marriage will occur, and following the rehearsal the party was entertained at Mrs. Comer's home, next door.

Assisting Mrs. Comer in entertaining were her daughter, Mrs. E. K. Thompson, and Mrs. C. H. Boer.

The home was decorated for the occasion with quantities of summer garden flowers carrying out the color scheme of green and yellow. In the dining room where supper was served the table held a silver basket filled with marigolds and zinnias.

Mrs. Comer received her guests wearing a beaded gown of apricot chiffon.

Miss King was an attractive figure in apricot chiffon, trimmed in silver lace.

Mrs. Beers was gowned in yellow georgette crepe and Mrs. Thompson wore a summer model of green velvet. Another pretty compliment to Miss King was the swimming party at which Mrs. William Owens entertained at the Piedmont Driving club on Friday afternoon.

Following the swim in the pool, tea was served on the terrace from a table adorned with garden flowers.

In the center was a basket filled with marigolds and purple ageratum, the handle of the basket tied with lavender tulle. The mints were embossed in tiny Dresden flowers.

Mrs. Owens was beautifully gowned in black and white chiffon, worn with a black picture hat.

Miss King wore a sports model of white tulle, banded in black satin. Her hat was a fall model of black satin.

Twenty guests were invited to meet Miss King.

Miss Sara Magill Is Honor Guest

Miss Sara Magill, of Richmond, Va., who is visiting Miss Laura Candler, was honor guest at the bride's tea given Friday afternoon by Miss Pansy Gordon, at her home on Barnett street.

The lovely home was attractively decorated with pink gladioli and other summer flowers attractively arranged. French novelties were given as prizes.

Miss Gordon wore pink georgette. Miss Gordon was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. E. L. Gordon, and Mrs. LePaige Lewis, Mrs. Berry Hill Mobley and Mrs. Davidson, of St. Louis.

Special Summer Rates $9.00 per day up, Grove Park Inn, Asheville. Finest Resort Hotel in the World.—(adv.)

Your Old Stove Accepted as Part Payment On a New LAUREL

Latest 1924 Model
Balance on Easy Payments

Only One More Day of Sale
See Our Line of Stoves Before You Buy—We Have a Size for Every Home

EDWARDS & WIGGINS
FURNITURE

Phone MAin 4674
244-246 Peters St.

BAKE YOUR CAKE WITH GAS TURNED OFF

LAUREL GAS RANGES
Bake with Conserved Heat, SAVED BY TRIPLE HEAT TRAVEL
TERMS 12 WEEKS of fresh fruits pure cane sugar

—its pure

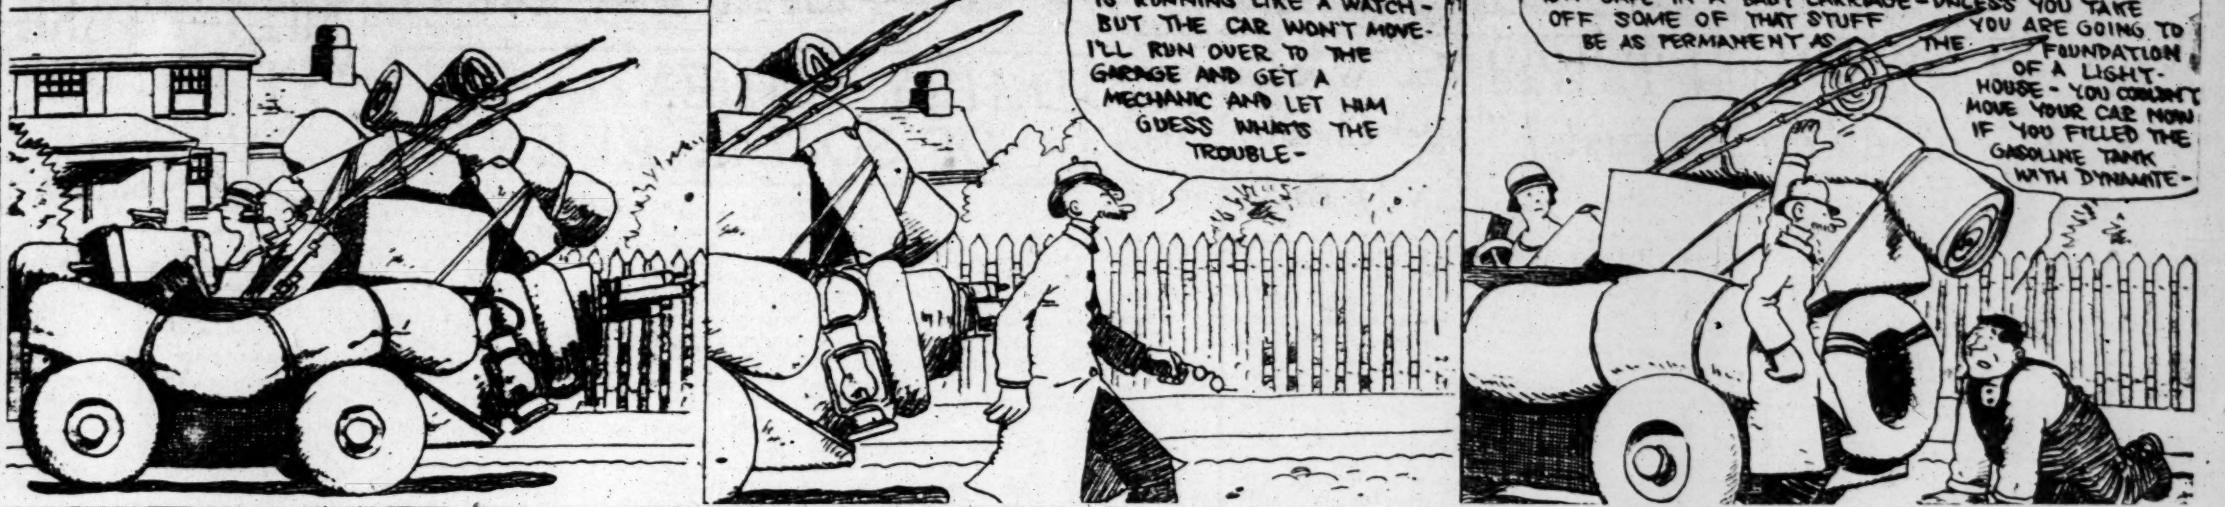

Makes a delicious drink
by just adding ice water.
A pint makes a gallon.
At all grocers.

ZA-REX
The fresh fruit drink

THE GUMPS—ANCHORED

ALL MARCH FOR BUDY BEST—EVERYTHING IS PACKED AND ANDY AND ANN ARE PREPARED TO ENJOY A WONDERFUL VACATION IN THE GREAT OPEN SPACES WHERE MEN ARE MEN AND MACHINES ARE MAN-EATERS.

I HAVE PLENTY OF GAS AND OIL—THE ENGINE IS RUNNING LIKE A WATCH—BUT THE CAR WON'T MOVE—IT'S RUN OVER TO THE GROUND AND GET A MECHANIC AND LET HIM GUESS WHAT'S THE TROUBLE.

THERE'S NOTHING THE MATTER EXCEPT THE SPRINGS ARE AS FLAT AS FRIED EGGS—THAT LOAD WOULD SINK A CEMENT SIDEWALK—YOU'RE TRYING TO MOVE A TEN TON SAFE IN A BABY CARRIAGE—UNLESS YOU TAKE OFF SOME OF THAT STUFF YOU ARE GOING TO BE AS PERMANENT AS THE FOUNDATION OF A LIGHT HOUSE—YOU COULDN'T MOVE YOUR CAR NOW IF YOU FILLED THE GASOLINE TANK WITH DYNAMITE.

The Fun Shop

MAXSON PUBLISHED JUNE

Capitulation.

I was afraid. Brunettes recalled to me Black crows, and night, and starless ways. And I a silent ship through endless days Bailing the vistas of the sea.

While blondes recalled to me the brutal age Of Vikings plundering the world From ships that sailed with death-sign flags unfurled, And I saw strife forever rage.

But if you think I never did embark Upon the matrimonial sea, You're wrong. A red-head came and looked at me— And then I was an easy mark!

A Collegiate Fall.

A college student had the misfortune to fall heavily with his partner on the floor at a large dance. A suspicious chaperon descended on him at once.

"Young man," she demanded, "have you been drinking?" "Madame," the mortified student replied, "I am not a drinking man, but I cannot deny that I just took a drop."

A nose is sometimes indicative of character, especially when a man's wife leads him by it.

Forceful Speaker.

Mrs. Blackstone: "Don't you think the new minister has a powerful voice?" Mrs. Webster: "Yes, indeed. He certainly kept our husbands wide awake during the sermon."

Just One Iron.

Blake: "My wife never gets anything done around the house." Drake: "Maybe she has too many irons in the fire." Blake: "No, just her curling iron. The electric iron is never hot."

Tales Are Useful.

(Sometimes.) The comet has a tail For sailing through the sky. The monkey has a tail To help him climb on high. The donkey has a tail To swat the pesky fly. But the naughty husband's tale seldom gets him by.

Flaming Youth.

Mary, aged six and Jean, four, were discussing the future (reports Dorothy P. Coleman).

"When I grow up," said Jean, "I'm going to be a school teacher."

"When I grow up," said Jean, "I'm going to be a mamma and have lots of children."

"Well, answered Mary, "when they come to school I'm going to whip 'em, whip 'em, whip 'em!"

"You mean thing," said Jean, starting to cry, "what have my children ever done to you?"

Bobbie-Shop Talk.

Barber to nervous young lady in his shop: "Well, Miss, what will you have, a hair cut?"

Nervous young lady: "Mercy, no! I want them all."

The Fun Shop's Hall of Fame.

We nominate for the Hall of Fame Mathilde Coffey for her remarkable self-restraint. For 20 years Mrs. Coffey has been going away in the summer, and each time on her return has taken off her hat, dropped into a chair, and said: "Well, after all, there is no place like home."

Readers are requested to contribute. All humor, epigrams, poetry, burlesque, satire, and bright sayings of children, must be original and unpublished. Accepted material will be paid for at regular rates. All manuscripts must be written on one side of the paper only, should bear the name of this newspaper, and should be addressed either to the Fun Shop, or to The Atlanta Constitution—Fun Shop Headquarters, 110 West 40th Street, New York City.

(Unaccepted manuscripts cannot be acknowledged or returned.)

(Copyright, 1924, for The Constitution.)

White Fang

BY JACK LONDON

Continued From Yesterday.

One thing, this connection, White Fang quickly learned, and that was that a thiefing god was usually a cowardly god and prone to run away at the sounding of the alarm. Also, he learned that but brief time elapsed between his sounding of the alarm and Gray Beaver's coming to his aid. He came to know that it was not fear of him that drove the thief away, but fear of Gray Beaver. White Fang did not give the alarm by barking. He never barked. His method was to drive straight at the intruder, and to sink his teeth in if he could. Because he was morose and solitary, having nothing to do with the other dogs, he was unusually fitted to guard his master's property; and in this he was encouraged and trained by Gray Beaver. The result of this was to make White Fang more ferocious and indomitable, and more solitary.

The months went by, binding stronger and stronger the covenant between dog and man. This was the ancient covenant that the first wolf that came in from the wild entered into with man. And, like all succeeding wolves and wild dogs that had done likewise, White Fang worked the covenant out for himself. The terms were simple. For the possession of flesh-and-blood god, he exchanged his own liberty. Food and fire, protection and companionship were some of the things he received from the god. In return, he guarded the god's property, defended his body, worked for him, and obeyed him.

CHAPTER VI.

The spring of the year was at hand when Gray Beaver finished his long journey. It was April, and White Fang was a year old when he pulled into the home village and was loosed from the harness by Mipsah. Though a long way from his full growth, White Fang, next to Lip-lip, was the largest yearling in the village. Both from his father, the wolf, and from Kiche, he had inherited stature and strength, and already he was measuring up alongside the full-grown dogs. But he had not yet grown compact. His body was slender and racy, and his strength more stringy than massive. His coat was the true wolf gray, and to all appearance he was true wolf himself. The master-in-of-dog he had inherited from Kiche.

JUST NUTS

IF I ADVISE YOU TO GO TO TOWN AND HAVE AN X-RAY PHOTO MADE OF YOUR TEETH, WOULD IT BE JUST THE SAME IF I MAILED MY FALSE TEETH?

NOOZIE

TH' BEST WAY TO GET A RESTFUL VACATION IS LEAVE YOUR KICKER AT HOME!

Big Prize Offer for Boys and Girls
50 Tickets to Jackie Coogan Picture Coming to Loew's Grand
24 Brand New Andy Gump Games from Milton Bradley Co. Atlanta Branch

Watch next Sunday's announcement of Drawing and Painting contest in Boys' and Girls' section of The Constitution's Magazine.

stood over the meat, head up and glowing. White Fang would ultimately have slunk away. But the fresh meat was strong in Baseek's nostrils, and greed urged him to take a bite of it.

This was too much for White Fang. Fresh upon his months of mastery over his own team-mates, it was beyond his self-control to stand idly by while another devoured the meat that belonged to him. He struck, after his custom, without warning. With the first slash, Baseek's right ear was ripped into ribbons. He was astounded at the suddenness of it. But more things, and most grievous ones, were happening with equal suddenness. He was knocked off his feet. His throat was bitten. While he was struggling to his feet the young dog sank teeth twice into his shoulder. The swiftness of it was bewildering. Some day he would be able to tell a fabled tale of White Fang.

clipping the empty air with an outraged snap. The next moment his nose was laid open and he was staggering backward away from the meat.

The situation was now reversed. White Fang stood over the shin-bone, bristling and menacing, while Baseek stood a little way off, preparing to retreat. He dared not risk a fight with this young lightning-flash, and as he knew, and more bitterly, the enfeeblement of oncoming age. His attempt to maintain his dignity was heroic. Calmly turning his back upon young dog and shin-bone, as though both were beneath his notice and unworthy of consideration, he stalked grandly away. Nor, until well out of sight, did he stop to lick his bleeding wounds.

The effect on White Fang was to give him a greater faith in himself and a greater pride. He walked less softly among the grown dogs; his attitude toward them was less compromising. Not that he went out of his way looking for trouble. Far from it. But upon his way he demanded consideration. He stood upon his right to go his way unmolested and to take trail to no dog. He had to be taken into account, that was all. He was no longer to be disregarded and ignored, as was the lot of puppies that were his team-mates. They got out of the way, gave trail to the grown dogs, and gave up meat to them under compulsion. But White Fang, a companionable, solitary, unrose, scarcely looking to right or left, redoubtable, forbidding of aspect, remote and alien, was accepted as an equal by his puzzled elders. They quickly learned to leave him alone, neither venturing hostile acts nor making overtures of friendliness. If they left him alone, he left them alone—a state of affairs that they found, after a few encounters, to be pre-eminently desirable. In midsummer White Fang had an experience. Trotting along in his silent way to investigate a new tepee which had been erected on the edge of the village while he was away with the hunters after moose, he came upon Kiche. He paused and looked at her. He remembered her vaguely, but he remembered her, and that was more than could be said for her. She lifted her lip at him in the old snarl of menace, and his memory came clear. His forgotten cubhood, all that was associated with that familiar snarl, rushed back to him. Before he had known the snarl, she had been to him the centre of the universe. The old familiar feeling of that time came back upon him, surged up within him. He bounded toward her joyously, and she met him with shrewd fangs that laid his cheek open to the bone. He did not understand. He backed away, bewildered and puzzled. But it was not Kiche's fault. A wolf-mother was not made to remember her cubs of a year or so before. So she did not remember White Fang. He was a strange animal, an intruder; and her present litter of puppies gave her the right to resent such intrusion. One of the puppies sprawled up to White Fang. They were half-brothers, only they did not know it. White Fang sniffed the puppy curiously, whereupon Kiche rushed upon him, gashing his face a second time. He backed further away. All the old memories and associations came back, again and passed into the grave from which they had been resurrected. He looked at Kiche licking her puppy and stopping now and then to snarl at him. She was without value to him. He had learned to get along without her. Her meaning was forgotten. There was no place for her in his scheme of things, as there was no place for him in hers.

He was still standing, stupid and bewildered, the memories forgotten, wondering what it was all about, when Kiche attacked him a third time, intent on driving him away altogether from the vicinity. And White Fang allowed himself to be driven away. This was a female of his kind, and it was a law of his kind that the males must not fight the females. He did not know anything about this law for it was no generalization of the mind, not a something acquired by experience in the world. He knew it was a secret prompting, as an urge of instinct—of the same instinct that made him howl at the moon and stars of night and that made him fear death and the unknown.

Continued in Tomorrow's Magazine.

SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPHER—Spitting the Company

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNER

Winnie Is Disillusioned

GASOLINE ALLEY—BACK TOWARD CIVILIZATION

MOON MULLINS—ABSOLUTELY AND POSITIVELY

News of the Churches

FIRST BAPTIST.
At First Baptist church, Rev. Charles W. Daniel, D. D., pastor, will preach at 11 a. m. "The Eyes of the Heart." Subject, 8 p. m. "Troublesome Tongues."

FORTIFIED HILLS BAPTIST.
The Fortified Hills Baptist church will continue its revival services Sunday, Rev. R. L. Holt, pastor, will preach at 11 o'clock and 8 p. m. "The Eyes of the Heart." Subject, 8 p. m. "Troublesome Tongues."

CAPITOL AVENUE BAPTIST.
At Capitol Avenue Baptist church, Rev. W. H. Major, pastor, will speak at both hours Sunday, 11 a. m. "The Eyes of the Heart." Subject, 8 p. m. "Troublesome Tongues."

JACKSON HILL BAPTIST.
Services for Sunday at Jackson Hill Baptist church, Rev. J. L. Jackson, pastor, will be at 11 a. m. subject, "The Eyes of the Heart." At 8 p. m. subject, "The Eyes of the Heart." At 8 p. m. subject, "The Eyes of the Heart."

GLAZIER MEMORIAL.
Tuesdays will be held Sunday at the Glazier Memorial Baptist church, Rev. J. L. Jackson, pastor, will preach at 11 a. m. subject, "The Eyes of the Heart." At 8 p. m. subject, "The Eyes of the Heart."

GORDON STREET BAPTIST.
At Gordon Street Baptist church, Sunday program follows: 11 a. m. "The Eyes of the Heart." At 8 p. m. "The Eyes of the Heart."

KIRKWOOD BAPTIST.
At the Kirkwood Baptist church, Dr. John P. Purser, pastor, will preach at the morning hour and 8 p. m. subject, "The Eyes of the Heart."

CENTRAL BAPTIST.
At Central Baptist church there will be preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Hambrick, Sunday, subject, 10:45 a. m., "The Eyes of the Heart."

News of the Churches

BAPTIST
SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH
Opposite State Capitol
PASTOR REV. CARTER HELM JONES, D. D.
9:30 a. m.—Sunday School; all departments.
11:00 a. m.—Rev. John E. White, D. D., Anderson, S. C.
8:00 p. m.—Service on Capitol lawn. Speaker, Rev. John E. White, D. D.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
REV. CHARLES W. DANIEL, D. D., Pastor
Dr. Daniel will preach at both morning and evening services.
Subject 11:00 A. M.: "The Eyes of the Heart."
Subject 8:00 P. M.: "Troublesome Tongues"

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
W. L. HAMBRICK, Pastor.
10:45 A. M. "The Eyes of the Heart."
7:45 P. M. "The Eyes of the Heart."

BROWN'S MEMORIAL
Baptist church will have tag day Monday. Benefits will be built new church. All donations will be highly appreciated.

PRESBYTERIAN
FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
SIXTEENTH AND PEACHTREE STREETS
SERMON ..... 11:00 A. M.
DR. CHARLES CLIFTON CARSON, D. D.
First Presbyterian Church, Bristol, Tenn.
No evening service.

GEORGIA AVE. PRESBYTERIAN
Corner Georgia Avenue and Grant Street.
Dr. Robert Ivy, Pastor.
Kate Hollingsworth, of Davidson College at 11 a. m.
Morning Subject: "The Sins of Forgetfulness."
Evening Subject: "Drifting."

DRUID HILLS PRESBYTERIAN
Ponce de Leon Avenue.
DR. CHARLES A. CAMPBELL, Pastor.
Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.
Rev. J. B. Ward, of Balaclava, will preach at both services.
Sunday School at 9:30. All Departments.

METHODIST, SOUTH
Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, South
294 PONCE DE LEON AVENUE.
11 a. m. sermon by Dr. Frank N. Parker, dean of the School of Theology of Emory University. 8 p. m. address by Mr. Marvin M. Davis, prominent Methodist layman. Special music.

St. Mark's M. E. Church, South
PEACHTREE AND FIFTH STREETS
REV. B. H. ASTON, D. D., OF TULSA, OKLAHOMA will preach at 11:00 a. m.
No evening service.

MOORE MEMORIAL
Rev. W. L. Latham will preach at this church Sunday at 11 a. m. Subject: "Things God Has Prepared and Ready for Us." Let every member of the church be present at this service.

CATHEDRAL
ST. PHILIP'S CATHEDRAL
Washington and Hunter Streets.
The Rev. R. H. Johnson, D. D., Bishop.
The Very Rev. T. H. Johnson, D. D., Dean.
The Rev. R. H. Johnson, D. D., Assistant.
Services for Sunday, August 3. Holy Communion at 8 a. m. Sunday School 9:45. Holy Communion by the Bishop Mikell, and sermon by the Rev. G. J. Hiller, of Lakeland, Fla., at 11 a. m. Evening services on the Capitol lawn at 8 o'clock.

CONGREGATIONAL
Central Congregational Church
Carnegie Way, at Ellis Street.
D. Witherspoon Dodge, D. D., Minister.
"WHAT IF THE GOSPEL IS TRUE?" at 11 a. m.
9:45, Sunday school; 7:15, Christian Endeavor. Special music—Mrs. Bernice Baslow Jennings and Mrs. J. J. Egan.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
First Church of Christ, Scientist
PEACHTREE AND FIFTEENTH STREETS.
SUNDAY AT 11 A. M. AND 7:45 P. M.—"Love."
SUNDAY SCHOOL AT 11 A. M.
Wednesday evening meeting, including testimonies of Christian Science healing at 8 o'clock. Reading rooms open daily, except Sunday and legal holidays, 613 Grand Boulevard building, from 9:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. Public cordially invited.

Second Church of Christ, Scientist
519 SOUTH FORREST, NEAR HUNTER.
SUNDAY SCHOOL AT 11 A. M.—"Love."
SUNDAY AT 11 A. M.—"Love."
Wednesday evening meeting, including testimonies of Christian Science healing at 8 o'clock. Reading rooms open daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., at 575 South Forsyth street. Public cordially invited.

COLORED
Rush Memorial Congregational
9:30 Sunday School.
11, Rev. S. J. Lindsey, the pastor, will preach, subject "The Church in a New Era." Preaching at 8 p. m.

COLORED
First Church of Christ, Scientist
PEACHTREE AND FIFTEENTH STREETS.
SUNDAY AT 11 A. M. AND 7:45 P. M.—"Love."
SUNDAY SCHOOL AT 11 A. M.
Wednesday evening meeting, including testimonies of Christian Science healing at 8 o'clock. Reading rooms open daily, except Sunday and legal holidays, 613 Grand Boulevard building, from 9:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. Public cordially invited.

COLORED
Rush Memorial Congregational
9:30 Sunday School.
11, Rev. S. J. Lindsey, the pastor, will preach, subject "The Church in a New Era." Preaching at 8 p. m.

COLORED
Rush Memorial Congregational
9:30 Sunday School.
11, Rev. S. J. Lindsey, the pastor, will preach, subject "The Church in a New Era." Preaching at 8 p. m.

Normal Institutes Planned For Teachers of Georgia

J. O. Martin, supervisor of state schools, in the state department of education, in his report just submitted to the Georgia legislature, points out that 27 per cent of Georgia teachers have had no training beyond the eleventh grade.

"In this enormous percentage," says the report, "is clearly seen the problem of the arrested growth of those who teach. In order to help those teachers as much as possible, Mr. Ballard, state superintendent of schools, has arranged for normal institutes to be held during the month of July at Ellijay and at Gainesville, Ga. (h) Schools by means of state funds set aside by the legislature. A course of study which covers the main elementary subjects has been arranged. It is estimated that attendance will approach 2,000."

1,806 Graduates in 1924.
The report further shows that, during 1924, 1,806 students graduated from normal schools and colleges for men and for women in the state. The enrollment for 1924 is given as 11,441, while 2,402 applicants are reported as refused admittance due to lack of accommodations.

The report also refers to a sent NOTED VIRGINIA PASTOR TO SPEAK AT CHURCH HERE

In the absence of Dr. Ashby Jones, who is spending the month of August out of the city, Dr. Edw. L. Bagby, pastor of the Central Baptist church, at Ponce de Leon Avenue Baptist church Sunday morning, August 3, and again on August 10.

Dr. Pollard is a Virginian by birth, a graduate of the University of Richmond and of the Southern Baptist Theological seminary of Louisville, Ky., where he was a classmate of Dr. Jones.

Dr. Jones said to members of his congregation that he was glad to see they were fortunate to secure Dr. Pollard to supply the pulpit, as he is a Bible scholar of the first rank, a powerful and a just personal charm that he is constantly in demand throughout the nation.

ARKANSAS PASTOR TO FILL PULPIT AT LOCAL CHURCH
Dr. J. Marion Stafford, pastor of the Alexander Memorial Presbyterian church, of Pine Bluff, Ark., has been secured to fill the pulpit of the Central Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock service. His subject will be "The Secret of a Happy Christian Life," a character sketch.

Dr. Stafford made a statement in his own behalf, and denied the entire charge or any knowledge whatever of the alleged offense.

SOVIET PRESIDENT NARROWLY ESCAPES LIGHTNING BOLT
Moscow, August 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Kalenin, of the Soviet government, had a narrow escape from death by lightning today when he was in a village in which he had taken refuge during a thunderstorm was demolished by a bolt. The lightning struck the building, instantly killed an accompanying photographer and injured the president.

The president was on the lower floor of the house when the lightning struck the building. The house took fire, but Mr. Kalenin escaped without injury of any sort.

NEW OFFICERS ADDED TO GEORGIA FACULTY
Athens, Ga., August 1.—(Special.)—Two new officers have been added to the Georgia faculty. Dr. J. O. Martin, supervisor of state schools, and Dr. J. O. Martin, supervisor of state schools, and Dr. J. O. Martin, supervisor of state schools.

BARONESS CONVICTED OF STEALING PEARLS
Graz, Austria, August 1.—Baroness Alice Konrad von Konradshausen was sentenced to six months in jail today after conviction on a charge of stealing a necklace belonging to the two of her friends in the former Austrian aristocracy. The testimony showed that she broke strings of pearls from the necklaces of her friends while they were being picked from the floor.

In her behalf failed to impress the court, although the defense proved that she owned a place here and several other places in Vienna. Medical evidence also was introduced to show that the baroness had an intense passion for pearls, which was said to be the cause of one of her mental derangements.

The baroness collapsed when she heard the sentence and was carried unconscious from the court.

NEWSPAPER AND STORE DESTROYED BY FIRE
Greenville, Miss., August 1.—The building occupied by the Greenville Democrat-Times and the adjoining building of the L. B. Price Mercantile company, a fire discovered early today, destroyed the newspaper and the mercantile building. An executive committee of the Democrat-Times was estimated at between $15,000 and $20,000, and to the Price building at several thousand dollars. L. B. Price, editor of the Democrat-Times, announced arrangements had been made to issue his paper temporarily from another printing plant.

O'NEAL NAMED TO HEAD ALABAMA FARM BUREAU
Montgomery, Ala., August 1.—Edward A. O'Neal, Florence, re-elected president of the Alabama Farm Bureau federation at the closing session of its annual meeting here today. John R. Witt, of Limestone, was elected first vice president, and R. F. Croon, Montgomery, second vice president. An executive committee was elected at the first time at the meeting today.

ARRIVES IN MADRID
Madrid, August 1.—The group of Americans from St. Augustine, Fla., who have come to Spain to take the celebration of the birth of Don Pedro Menendez, founder of St. Augustine, arrived in Madrid from Barcelona.

The Americans, who were entertained wherever they stopped en route, left for Madrid August 6 for a day, birthplace of Menendez, where the celebration is to take place.

Classifications
10—Rooms for housekeeping.
11—Vacation Places.
12—Where to Stay in Town.
13—Where to Stay in Country.
14—Where to Stay in Board.
15—Where to Stay in Hotel.
16—Where to Stay in Restaurant.
17—Where to Stay in Office and Desk Room.
18—Where to Stay in Apartment.
19—Where to Stay in Villa.
20—Where to Stay in Estate.
21—Where to Stay in Estate.
22—Where to Stay in Estate.
23—Where to Stay in Estate.
24—Where to Stay in Estate.
25—Where to Stay in Estate.
26—Where to Stay in Estate.
27—Where to Stay in Estate.
28—Where to Stay in Estate.
29—Where to Stay in Estate.
30—Where to Stay in Estate.

Automotive
11—Automobiles for Sale.
12—Used Cars for Sale.
13—Used Cars for Sale.
14—Used Cars for Sale.
15—Used Cars for Sale.
16—Used Cars for Sale.
17—Used Cars for Sale.
18—Used Cars for Sale.
19—Used Cars for Sale.
20—Used Cars for Sale.
21—Used Cars for Sale.
22—Used Cars for Sale.
23—Used Cars for Sale.
24—Used Cars for Sale.
25—Used Cars for Sale.
26—Used Cars for Sale.
27—Used Cars for Sale.
28—Used Cars for Sale.
29—Used Cars for Sale.
30—Used Cars for Sale.

Help Wanted—Male
33—DRAFTSMAN—Wanted with experience in reinforced concrete work; recent college graduate; 24 hours a week; salary expected, age and when available. Address: Concrete Steel Company, Birmingham, Ala.
34—SALES—Wanted, Adams Printing Company, 1234 Whitehall, Boston, Mass.
35—SALES—Wanted, Adams Printing Company, 1234 Whitehall, Boston, Mass.
36—SALES—Wanted, Adams Printing Company, 1234 Whitehall, Boston, Mass.
37—SALES—Wanted, Adams Printing Company, 1234 Whitehall, Boston, Mass.
38—SALES—Wanted, Adams Printing Company, 1234 Whitehall, Boston, Mass.
39—SALES—Wanted, Adams Printing Company, 1234 Whitehall, Boston, Mass.
40—SALES—Wanted, Adams Printing Company, 1234 Whitehall, Boston, Mass.

Railroad Schedules
Schedules published as information.
(Central Standard Time)
ATLANTA TERMINAL STATION
Arrives—A. B. & RAILWAY—Leaves 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York, 2:00 p. m. for New York, 2:30 p. m. for New York, 3:00 p. m. for New York, 3:30 p. m. for New York, 4:00 p. m. for New York, 4:30 p. m. for New York, 5:00 p. m. for New York, 5:30 p. m. for New York, 6:00 p. m. for New York, 6:30 p. m. for New York, 7:00 p. m. for New York, 7:30 p. m. for New York, 8:00 p. m. for New York, 8:30 p. m. for New York, 9:00 p. m. for New York, 9:30 p. m. for New York, 10:00 p. m. for New York, 10:30 p. m. for New York, 11:00 p. m. for New York, 11:30 p. m. for New York, 12:00 p. m. for New York, 12:30 p. m. for New York, 1:00 p. m. for New York, 1:30 p. m. for New York,

